Mud Run Ditch Proceedings Dismissed by Joint Board

The joint county commissioner board for the improvement of Mud Run Ditch yesterday dismissed the ditch proceedings and its petition.

The joint commissioner board of Pickaway, Fayette and Ross Counties met in the local common pleas court to render their decision.

Members said the board dismissed the proceedings due to its belief that the cost of improvement would exceed the benefits received. They said heavy opposition registered against the ditch project was another deciding factor.

County Commissioner Wayne Hines presided over the final hearing, which was witnessed by nearly 40 persons. Hines was chairman of the joint board. Henry McCrady, County Engineer, was chief engineer, and County Auditor Mrs. Marvina H. Rhoades was clerk.

ATTORNEYS representing the opposition forces against the ditch project were Joseph W. Adkins, 216 S. Court St., and William Junk, Washington C. H.

Adkins addressed the joint board, stating the opposition's argument. He explained that County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer had denied an injunction to halt the final hearing.

"But," Adkins stated, "the court also rendered an opinion that the ditch proceedings were illegal because the joint board failed to follow state statute for procedures on ditch improvement."

Ammer's opinion said that preliminary plans for the ditch were not approved by the engineers of the three counties involved.

The judge's opinion noted that nothing was filed to indicate that Elmer Barrett & Associates, the Chillicothe engineering firm hired to make the ditch survey and assessments, was retained either as deputy engineers or chief engineer.

He pointed out that a report of the ditch estimates or proposed work had not been submitted to the State Departments of Natural Resources and Highways or the Directors of the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District as required by law.

SPOKESMEN for the joint board related after the hearing that all these procedures had been followed, but that the board's former clerk, Mrs. Verna M. O'Hara, failed to make proper entry into the board's minutes of the proceedings.

Adkins suggested the joint board include Ammer's opinion into its motion to dismiss the ditch project, but the joint board refused.

Chief Engineer McCrady said after the hearing that he had letters of approval from the State Highway Department, State Department of Natural Resources and Conservancy District, but failure to enter these on the minutes, provided opposition the legal technicalities to force the dismissal of the project.

Judge Ammer said he could only issue an opinion on what actually appeared on the board's minutes, which resulted in the unfavorable viewpoint.

Earlier in the day, the joint board received objections to the ditch improvement from 139 persons who had been notified of the intent to assess their property in proportion to the benefit received by each land owner.

The 139 persons objecting owned 2,860.64 acres of land along the ditch's route and 74½ lots. Nearly all objectors were residents of Pickaway County in the New Holland area.

THE OBJECTORS also represented $39,621.62 of the $82,372.16 (Continued on Page Two)

What Happens to Michigan Now with Its 'Bankruptcy'

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — What happens when a state runs out of money to pay its employees and pay its bills?

Will guards desert state prisons, and attendants quit their jobs at mental institutions?

Will suppliers cut off food and fuel deliveries to state tuberculosis sanatoriums?

Will hospitals refuse to accept state-supported crippled children and turn others out?

How long will telephone and power companies carry the state on the cuff?

These and other questions burst upon state officials and employees alike today as implications of Michigan's financial picture began to unfold.

Payment was halted on salaries of 28,000 employees and bills for fuel, food, telephones and travel in what Gov. G. Mennen Williams said was an "artificial bankruptcy" brought on by stalling in the Republican-controlled Legislature.

The curbs were ordered Wednesday by the State Administrative Board in the face of a $116,900,000 deficit expected by May 15.

They followed a refusal by GOP lawmakers to cash veterans trust fund securities which would tide the state over another three months. Republicans insisted on attaching a rider which would have raised the state sales tax to four per cent from three.

The state's financial difficulties have been blamed by Republicans on what they say are excessive spending policies of the Williams administration. The governor, however, has contended that GOP-controlled Legislatures failed to recognize the need for higher budgetary appropriations over the past 10 years.

House OKs Lancaster Armory Sale

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House today passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing sale of a National Guard armory in downtown Lancaster for $90,000. The vote was 111-0.

Sale of the land and building, erected in 1908, to James E. Kidd of Lancaster, followed cancellation of an agreement for Kidd to build a new armory in exchange for the old site. The Legislature two years ago approved that agreement.

Adj. Gen. Loren G. Windom said the state plans to build the largest armory in Ohio, with federal help, on a new site.

The original price of $100,000 for the downtown armory was cut to $90,000 to reimburse Kidd for streets, sewers and other improvements already made at the previously planned site of a new armory.

House Speaker James A. Lantz (D-Fairfield), sponsor of the bill authorizing the sale, said Kidd plans to build new homes on the land he purchased and developed for a new armory. Lantz turned over his speaker's chair to Majority Leader Jesse Yoder (D-Montgomery), and moved to the floor of the House to explain his bill.

Wives of Pickets Set Up Their Own Picketing of Plant

OKMUGEE, Okla. (AP) — Roadblocks will be continued for the third day today by wives of striking Phillips Petroleum Co. workers.

The women, ignoring pleas by their husbands and union leaders to "go home," have stopped at least 25 refinery tank trucks at three access roads to the refinery.

The strike by 103 Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers members is now in its 76th day.

The women started their blockades 100 yards from the plant after the union denied their request for permission to join the picket lines at refinery gates.

Panamanian Troops Await Orders To Attack Rebels

Chicago Becomes Deep-Sea Port

CHICAGO (AP)—This big city on the edge of the inland prairie joined the ranks of the world's deep-sea ports today.

The Prins Johan Willem Friso, a trim Dutch freighter, arrived off Chicago at 6:45 a.m. She was the first ocean vessel to make the run through the new St. Lawrence Seaway to Chicago.

The 353-foot Friso, winner of the race to Chicago by a wide margin, rode at anchor in Lake Michigan until a midmorning welcome at Navy Pier.

Capt. Sander Klein, a stocky, ruddy man, was asked by a newsman how his trim, gray, diesel-driven craft managed to be first to reach the western end of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes water route.

"We got a motor," he replied with a laugh.

The Friso cut a watery trail along the entire distance from the deepened St. Lawrence route and proclaimed to the world that Great Lakes ports now are open to deep-draft sea vessels.

The Friso made the trip from the entrance of the locks, near Montreal, to Chicago in a little more than 4½ days.

As part of the welcome, a party of Indians set out in tugs to greet the Friso.

The first American flagship to make the run through the new Seaway to Chicago, the Santa Regina, approached Chicago with the expectation of docking late in the day.

Chicago and other Great Lakes ports beam at the opening of the seaway because they hope it will inaugurate a great business boom.

The 4,000-ton Friso was one of the first through the locks when the seaway opened Saturday.

The Friso led her nearest competitor in the westward race from Montreal—the 459½-foot American flagship Santa Regina—by some 200 miles.

A roaring welcome by some 15,000 persons greeted Capt. Sander Klein and his crew when the Friso docked at Milwaukee 99 miles north to become the first foreign flagship to tie up at a Lake Michigan port after sailing through the new canal.

Richard T. Ice Dies at 53 of Heart Attack

Richard T. Ice, 53, of 414 N. Pickaway St., died unexpectedly of a heart attack at 6:10 p.m. yesterday at his home while mowing a lawn.

Mr. Ice was an employee of The Circleville Herald where he worked as a linotype operator. He was employed first at The Herald for a period in the 1940's and again for about the last two years.

He was born in Hoytville, O., on April 3, 1906, a son of William E. and Katherine Thomas Ice. He came to Pickaway County in 1944.

In 1951, Mr. Ice was married to Mabel Dresbach Ice who survives. Other survivors are one brother, David T. Ice, Jackson, and one step-daughter, Mrs. W. W. McLain, Michigan.

FUNERAL services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Mader Funeral Home, with Rev. Carl Zehner officiating. Burial will be in Hiller-Ludwig Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at 1 p.m. Friday.

Frisco, Quebec Tipped for Summit Parley

PARIS (AP) — Today's best guess for the site of an East-West summit conference is San Francisco, or Quebec.

Allied diplomats also reported that the target date favored by the Western powers for the conference is about Aug. 1.

Decisions on both points would have to be taken by East-West foreign ministers who meet in Geneva May 11.

As of now, the big powers have not definitely decided that a summit meeting will be held.

Both San Francisco and Quebec have been formally offered to the Big Four as summit sites. In the case of San Francisco, this has been done by the civic authorities. In the case of Quebec, Canada has sent notes to the powers concerned.

Britain has indicated to the Allies a preference for Vienna. The French also favor a European city, but reportedly would not object to a North American meeting place.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is believed ready to meet the Allies almost anywhere—perhaps most of all in the United States which he has never visited.

U. S. Airplanes On Patrol To Spot Invaders

Target Is Hired Force Of 89; Lone American Is Reported on List

PANAMA (AP) — Panamanian troops today were reported preparing to go into action at any minute against invaders from Cuba holed up on the north coast 20 miles from the entrance to the Panama Canal.

A screen of U.S. fighter planes was ordered up over Panama's north coast today to detect the approach of more invaders reported crossing the Caribbean from Cuba. The air patrol was requested by the five-ambassador team sent by the Organization of American States to help end the vest-pocket attempt to overthrow Panamanian President Ernesto de la Guardia.

An informed source who reported the imminence of attack on the invaders said the National Guard had held off to protect the 1,000 inhabitants of Nombre de Dios, the coastal town taken over by the invaders who landed last Saturday from Cuba.

Between 200 and 300 guard troops have been deployed around Nombre de Dios since Tuesday.

The government said the invading force in Nombre de Dios now numbered 89, including 84 Cubans, 3 Panamanians, 1 American and 1 Puerto Rican. The identity of the American was not known. The government claims the foreigners were hired by Panamanians in Cuba plotting to overthrow De la Guardia.

The U.S. Air patrol was ordered after Panamanian authorities reported one or two more invasion boats carrying up to 300 men left the Cuban port of Surgidero, on Batabano Bay, Tuesday.

The committee of ambassadors recommended that the OAS Council in Washington urge Prime Minister Fidel Castro's Cuban government to "exhaust all measures to prevent a new invasion from being carried out." Castro has condemned action from Cuban soil against other Latin-American governments, and the OAS committee said it had found no evidence that any foreign government was involved in the invasion of Panama.

In a dispatch from Havana, the New York Times reported that Panamanian rebels are plotting a symbolic grab of the canal if they overthrow De la Guardia. The United States has permanent jurisdiction over the waterway and the zone on each side of it under a treaty between Panama and the United States.

Minister of Government Jose D. Bazar told the National Assembly most of the invaders are civilians with criminal records in Cuba or the United States. They were each paid from $200 to $2,000 and were made all sorts of promises in the event of a victory, he said. He claimed about half had belonged to Castro's revolutionary army.

Woman Actually Scared to Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police say Mrs. Ellen Gertrude Bentz actually was scared to death today.

The 74-year-old widow suffered a fatal heart attack when she discovered a burglar in her home about 2:15 a.m.

Police said the burglar broke into the Bentz home after stealing a purse from another residence on the street. They said Mrs. Bentz screamed frantically, arousing a son, Joseph, and a housekeeper, who slept in upstairs bedrooms.

The son found his mother standing by her bed and screaming. "There's a man in the house," Mud tracks left indicated the burglar fled through the same door he had broken to enter the house.

About 45 minutes later Mrs. Bentz died in St. Anthony Hospital.

West Stamps OK On Package Deal

PARIS (AP)—The Western Big Four foreign ministers announced complete agreement today on a package plan they will deliver to the Geneva conference next month. They then unexpectedly ended their session.

A final communique gave no details of the plan. The foreign ministers opened their meeting only Wednesday to unify their positions for the East-West foreign ministers conference at Geneva May 11.

The ministers said they stood four-square behind the West's pledge to hold firm in Berlin and to refuse to abandon the 2½ million residents of that city.

Though the communique did not say so, official sources reported the ministers had agreed to negotiate a separate Berlin settlement if the Soviet Union rejects the over-all package deal on Berlin, German unity, and European security they plan to propose at Geneva.

This Allied agreement on a fall-back position was disclosed before the U.S., British, French and West German foreign ministers began their closing discussion of Britain's project for a zone of limited, controlled arms and armies in central Europe.

Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan has advocated establishment of such a zone as the first step in a cold war settlement with the Soviet Union.

Qualified sources gave this outline of the new Allied plan of negotiations:

The Western package that will be laid before the Soviets at the Geneva conference of foreign ministers next month will cover the Berlin dispute, the reunification of Germany in four phases, and a pan-European security system.

If, as expected, the Soviets reject this package, the Western Allies have agreed to fall back on a new position that would allow separate arrangements on threatened Berlin.

The Allies are resolved, however, that they will not separate their linked program for German reunification and the development of a European security system.

There was a compromise on the British-proposed European security zone. Details were not disclosed. But officials said the proposal was watered down considerably to meet American, French and West German objections.

The officials said the British proposal will be fitted into the Allied program for unification of East and West Germany. In other words, its fulfillment would de-

Armed Woman Finally Quelled By Tear Gas

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP) — A widow with a shotgun barricaded herself in her apartment for three hours Wednesday and tossed back the tear gas grenades fired by police.

Mrs. Catherine Ranonis, about 60, held 30 policemen at bay by threatening to shoot at them if they stormed her third floor apartment.

Two policemen tried to sneak up the back stairs and found out she wasn't bluffing. She fired at them, but the pellets lodged in the wall and the two backed off unhurt.

Finally, however, the tear gas got the better of Mrs. Ranonis and officers wearing gas masks entered the apartment and disarmed her.

Mrs. Ranonis has had a long feud with a neighborhood funeral home over parking of funeral cars in front of the apartment building where she lives. The dispute erupted again Wednesday, and police were called.

Mrs. Ranonis barricaded herself in the apartment and threatened to fire. Thirty tear gas grenades were hurled. She picked them up as they landed and threw them back.

Then police, wearing gas masks mounted the stairs, broke in and disarmed her. She was taken to Philadelphia General Hospital for psychiatric examination.

pend on progress toward a German political settlement.

The British idea, as originally conceived, called for controls, inspection and limitation of armed forces in a tension-ridden area of Europe roughly embracing the two Germanys, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Allied critics have expressed fear a pullback in that particular area would put the West at a military disadvantage.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is to take off for Washington Friday after calling on French Premier Michel Debre.

Showdown Near On Sales Tax Boosting Bill

Ohio Senate Caucus Lacks Encouragement For DiSalle Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The ticklish situation in which Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's controversial sales tax bill found itself today sent a single up the spine of every one of Ohio's 172 lawmakers.

If Democratic Gov. DiSalle has any hope of receiving the additional 365 million dollars in taxes he is asking, or any major part of it, he is counting on about 117 millions from sales tax increases from the state Senate.

A two-hour caucus Wednesday produced nothing to encourage the governor in his pursuit of new tax money.

He is also counting on 128 millions in other new taxes and about 120 millions more in new highway tax money.

The showdown stage has been reached in the Senate's consideration of the sales tax bill. The Senate Democratic caucus was told the governor has reached the end of his string on compromise.

The two-hour Senate caucus got the word yesterday that DiSalle is willing to back away no farther from his bill originally designed to produce more than 197 million dollars in the next two years.

Senate Democrats will get copies of the latest sales tax bill today for study over the weekend. And, still ringing in their ears is a plea by Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King to consider the state's financial plight before making a decision on the proposed sales tax increase.

In view of Senate Democrats' reports that the sales tax bill does not have a "snowball's chance in Hell" if it ever reaches the Senate floor, it is improbable that a weekend's study will sway enough Senate votes to insure favorable Senate action.

But, King warned the Democratic caucus, if the sales tax increase bill is junked, it will be up to the legislators to determine which existing programs will be shaved to make up for the lack of revenues.

Sen. King, with unanimous consent, introduced a bill nearly two months after the deadline to increase assessments against Ohio railroads and utilities for operating costs of the Utilities Commission from $725,000 to $925,000 a year.

The Senate passed and sent to the House bills to:

Permit the experimental formation of co-operative nonprofit medical care groups.

Establish Columbus Day, Oct. 12, as a legal holiday in Ohio, a day now observed in 37 other states.

Expand the jurisdiction of the Cleveland Municipal Court three miles out into Lake Erie, give the Port Clinton Municipal Court jurisdiction in the island township of Put-in-Bay and establish a municipal court in Fairfield, Butler County. The section of the bill dealing with the Fairfield court was made an emergency to allow a judge to be elected in November.

Mud Run . . .

total estimated cost of the ditch project as estimated by Barrett. These persons said they were opposed to the ditch project be-cause "the assessment against their lands was much greater than any possible benefit they could de-derive from such improvement; Im-provement would be in no way necessary or helpful to them, and is not necessary or conducive to the best public interests or well-fare."

The dismissal of the project also removed two law suits from being filed. Farm Management Inc. and Clarence Brown had notified the joint board of their intent to sue if the project was approved.

Robert Bush, supervisor of Farm Management, said in his suit that if the alleged improve-ment was established his farm would sustain damages of $4,000.

The suit stated a tile ditch pres-ently goes through the farm's land, which adequately drains the land. The alleged ditch improve-ment would include construction of an open ditch through his land in question.

BUSH SAID THIS ditch would run $3,000 feet through the land, dividing field. The ditch, there-fore, would permanently damage the field for farm operation.

He asked for $2,000 for appropri-ated land and $2,000 for damages toward future farming of the field. The farm is owned by Louise M. Mack.

Brown was suing for $1,000 for damages to his 27 acres and pos-sible ditch acquisition of two acres.

Brown said the ditch would be widened through his property and take approximately two acres of it. He continued, stating that gravel and rock from bottom of the ditch would be spread over his land, damaging its fertility.

Informed observers say the ditch project is "dead". But the County Commissioners say it is still alive.

According to the commissioners here the Barrett engineering firm still has to be paid but it has not been determined who is liable. An oral contract was made with Bar-rett by McCrady but there are no minutes to back this up, they said.

THE COMMISSIONERS said there is the question of the original petitioners being liable. If so, this would save the counties involved considerable revenue for a project that was never started, they added.

The Commissioners said they will consult County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis before making their decision.

Mud Run Ditch is also known as Hamilton or Kirkpatrick Ditch. It flows along the east side of New Holland, starting in Ross County and ending in Fayette County.

The request for an injunction and restraining order was filed by three New Holland residents as a result of the village prop-erty owners receiving assessments against their property.

Barrett estimated costs of the ditch would run $82,372.16 of which New Holland lot owners would pay $27,012.68 and land parcel owners, $21,013.27.

The original petition for recon-struction of Mud Run Ditch was filed by McKinley Kirk, John S. Mossbarger and Eddie Kirk.

It asked that the ditch be recon-structed, widened, deepened, straightened, altered, cleaned and repaired. A joint board of the three county commissioners was set up.

Delaware OKs Whipping Post

At Least 20 Lashes Ordered for Robbery

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Delaware's Legislature, concerned by an in-crease in the crime rate, has passed a bill making whipping mandatory for people convicted of robbery.

The bill says: 20 to 40 lashes for the first offense and not less than 30 for each subsequent conviction.

The House passed the Senate version Wednesday 22-3. Gov. J. Caleb Boggs, however, declined comment when asked what he thought of the bill.

He said he would decide early next week about signing it.

If he does sign, it will be the first time in the history of the state that whipping has been man-datory punishment for a crime.

In the old days whipping was used to punish wife beating, theft and a variety of other crimes, but it was always imposed at the discretion of the judge. The pres-ent sentence for robbery for ex-ample, is a fine of not less than $500 and imprisonment for 3 to 25 years, plus not more than 40 lashes if the judge wishes.

For seven years there have been no official whippings in Delaware.

Godfrey's Chest Tumor Found To Be Cancer

NEW YORK (AP)—An operation disclosed today that Arthur Godfrey's chest tumor is cancerous. Physicians are removing it.

His condition was said to be ex-celent.

Three physicians, three nurses and an anesthetist attended God-frey in the operating room of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Ohio Valley Group Asks More Flood Control Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congress has been advised to start building new dams in Pennsylvania, New York, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio to avoid a rep-ition of this year's floods.

William J. Hull, chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Ohio Valley Improvement Assn. (OVIA) said Wednesday that President Eisenhower's budget was deficient in failing to make provision for such works.

"The tragic floods of 1958 and 1959 are grim reminders of the inadequacies of existing flood con-trol works, effective though these have been in reducing flood dam-ages," he said.

A delegation from OVIA, an or-ganization of government, financial and industrial interests, testified before a House Appropriations Subcommittee.

The group suggested, among other things, spending the follow-ing on new flood control reser-voirs:

Allegheny River Reservoir (Pa. and N. Y.), $2,000,000; No. 2 Bar-ren River Reservoir, Ky., $1,000,000; Pound River Reservoir (Va.), $2,500,000; Shenango River Reservoir (Ohio and Pa.), $500,000.

Summersville Reservoir (W. Va.) $2,000,000; West Branch, Mahoning River Reservoir (Ohio), $525,000.

President Eisenhower's budget lists no money for new construc-tion of these projects. It does pro-pose planning money for Pound and West Branch $229,000.

With respect to the Ohio River Hull said the President's budget has a grave deficiency in failing to propose advance engineering work on five replacement projects.

These are, along with OVIA's recommended spending:

Belleville Locks and Dam (Ohio and W. Va.), $125,000; Cannelton Locks and Dam (Ind. and Ky.),

Firemen Called To Auto Blaze

The Circleville Fire Department was called to Long Alley at 11:15 p. m. yesterday to extinguish an auto blaze.

advertising so as to enable Ohio to collect an $800,000 bonus in high-way funds.

Set up a procedure through which the highway director can ask for the vacating of a county or township road for improve-ment.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to allow visitors from other states to fish in Ohio for 15 days—instead of 10—on a $3 non-resident license. The vote: 117-5.

Passed without dissent was a House bill increasing examination fees paid by state banks about $75,000 a year. Backers said the state has run some $432,000 in the hole on the examinations. They reported the higher fees would put examinations on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Another bill passed on to the Senate would permit the state to reimburse counties for the cost of returning prisoners from other states when extradition was waived. A recent attorney general's ruling held that counties must pay the costs in such cases.

Other approved measures in-creased exemptions allowed in proceedings for attachment of property actions.

The Senate Taxation Committee recommended passage of a House-approved bill to boost the tax on 3.2 barrel beer about two million dollars a year. The House Judi-ciary Committee took similar ac-tion on a proposal for binding fair trade contracts on retail prices to replace a law recently knocked out by an Ohio Supreme Court decision.

Hohly said an autopsy showed the baby had been burned to death in the incinerator and never had been fed.

House Fails To Override Ike's Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today upheld President Ei-senhower's veto of a rural elec-trification bill.

The vote was 280-146 in favor of passing the bill over the Presi-dent's veto. This was four short of the two-thirds necessary to override. It killed the bill.

The President vetoed the bill last Monday and the Senate over-rode the veto Tuesday by a vote of 64-29.

The House decision kept intact Eisenhower's record of never hav-ing had a veto overridden.

This bill was the 138th vetoed by the President since he took of-fice early in 1953.

The bill would have stripped from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson his power to veto loans to cooperatives for rural electric and telephone service.

Four Democrats joined 142 Re-publicans in upholding the Presi-dent. Six Republicans and 274 Democrats voted to override.

There was no debate before the roll-call vote.

Both sides recognized before the House vote that it looked like a toss-up as to which would win.

Firm Appeals BWC Decision

The Dunlap Service Co., Wil-liamsport, yesterday in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court filed suit against Homer Collier Sr. and James L. Young, Administrator of Bureau of Workmen's Compensa-tion.

Dunlap appealed an action by the Columbus Regional Board of Review awarding compensation to Collier, a former Dunlap em-ployee.

Collier claimed he suffered an injury while working for Dunlap. The Workmen's Compensation Ad-ministrator disallowed Col-lier's claim, stating "the injury was not incurred while in the course of or arising out of his em-ployment with Dunlap."

Collier appealed to the Board of Review which reversed the Ad-ministrator's decision. The Board of Review then refused to permit Dunlap to file an appeal with it, ac-cording to the Dunlap petition.

Are People Becoming Stupid?

It is not a figment of the imagination—people are becoming more stupid all the time. So says a noted expert on evolution who fears modern man is building a world too complex for his ancestors to understand.

He envisions men of the future completely lost in a world of their own design.

"It is a decidedly unpleasant conclusion that mankind as a whole, or at least our own segment of it, may be evolving in the direction of less intelligence," George Gaylord Simpson, Columbia University professor and chairman of the department of geology and paleontology at the American Museum of Natural History, told a college audience.

Simpson's conclusion was based on studies of the source of the population surge taking place in the United States, Great Britain, Canada and other countries. These studies showed the largest percentage of population increases coming from low income and educational-level families.

This in itself, says Simpson, means nothing unless there is a corresponding lower genetic composition in the group. Although he acknowledges there is an abundance of opposition on this subject, Simpson based his study on the theory that there is a lower intelligence level in the low income group.

From this point on, it is easy to follow the professor's warning that "each new generation nowadays is mostly derived from the less intelligent members of the last generation."

Assuming the Simpson premise is correct, the world would seem to be building a paradox for its future inhabitants. It has already grown too big for its environment bristles scientifically. Perhaps the swift path of science is outdistancing the human element needed to follow through.

Need To Stop Inflation Grows

That expectation of continuing inflation is the power behind the speculation that has carried shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange to record highs has been known for months. Speculators figure they have a better chance there to tailor the increased number of their dollars to the diminished purchasing power of the future than anywhere else.

This thinking is evident elsewhere. Cost-of-living escalator clauses in labor contracts now cover four million workers. One business leader wants the Treasury to issue "inflation-proof" bonds, the interest of which will go up as the cost of living increases. Others sponsor a similar scheme for social security checks.

There are so many areas where "escalation" is not possible, however, that only one sure way remains to protect the people from the follies and dangers of eroded money. That is to fight the basic causes of inflation. For the great majority there is no hedge against inflation itself.

C. Canby Balderston, a member of the Federal Reserve Board, makes the point crystal clear:

"While the majority of investors cannot outrun inflation, they can do something to protect themselves against it. That is, they can unite to fight it by demanding prudence in the management of national affairs and by exercising it in the conduct of their own."

"In short, they can insist that the nation not spend more than it earns through production and that their government live within its income."

Afraid To Speak Your Mind?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Are Americans today afraid to speak out their mind?

The question is raised by John Braine, one of Britain's brightest new literary talents.

Many British visitors in the past have complained that Americans, if anything, are too vocal about things they know little about.

Braine, after a two-week tour ranging from Boston to Chicago, said: "This seems to be a country where I don't hear people giving their opinions out loud about any issues."

"It might be fear. It might be something else. I haven't been here long enough to tell," he said.

Braine, classified as one of England's "angry young men," a label that he detests, is author of a best seller, the story of a working class lad on the make—financially and socially.

Here are a few other quick U.S. impressions by the 37-year-old author:

"No one here seems to wear his hair longer than two inches—which is a frightening thing. It is rather like being in an army camp."

"And all the little boys have their hair shaved—as if for ringworm. There is nothing wrong with it. But why do they all have to do it? It is so uniform."

"Too much conformity of any kind seems sterile to Braine, a self-educated writer who had to quit school at 16. In 1951 he gave up a "good safe job" as a $28 a week librarian to try his luck as a writer."

There, he recalled, he sometimes had to pawn his best pair of trousers to raise the price for a meal, but at least "I had ceased to remain a prisoner of my own timidity."

"Once you've been on your beam ends in a strange city, you're not frightened of anything after that. You may not get to be a very mature person, but you are your own master," he said.

Braine is quietly proud of his working class origin. But as to being one of Britain's "angry young men," he said: "It's nonsense. There is no such group of like-minded young writers at all."

He hopes, he said, to build a whole fictional world around the life of his time.

"I don't know how many books it will take. Because I don't know how long I'll live," he said. "I write slowly—in longhand, and I write three drafts of each book."

"To me the only reliable pleasure is work. You are born to do your job."

"If you don't do it, you might as well be dead."

No Satisfaction in Waiting

By George Sokolsky

L. C. Frenberg of Bismarck, North Dakota, writes me as follows:

"At present the Soviets and the Communist ruled nations in general are in the process of changing backward poverty stricken lands into modern industrial states to the end that all may have a higher standard of living and be able to live a more affluent life. It is a tough proposition at best and with the Capitalist rulers obstructing every move they make in building up their economy for the noted objective, it is a doubly tough job. Once they get over the hump, it is reasonable to suppose that all individuals within the Soviet Empire will have less slavery and more freedom."

In the first place, one must ask Mr. Frenberg precisely where this lovely condition is being developed by Soviet Russia. Actually, what he says Soviet Russia is doing is being done by the United States through its various forms of aid. To see precisely how wrong my correspondent is, one needs to look at West Germany and East Germany, at West Berlin and East Berlin. These areas are contiguous and the people are of the same race; yet in West Germany there is prosperity and a remarkable recovery of a people from war; in East Germany, the standard of life has receded and people are escaping from Russian abuse and torture to the Western part of Germany.

Has the standard of living of Hungary improved since the Communists took over?

Has the standard of living of Czechoslovakia improved since the Communists took over?

Has the liberty of the Polish people increased since Russia bent that country to its will?

Of which countries does Frenberg write? Perhaps of China where the Communists themselves admit to mass murders and where the gentle Tibetans fight with staves and muskets for their lives?

Who are the Capitalist rulers to whom Frenberg refers who are interfering with Communist construction? What are their names? Does he mean the United States? If he does, let us have a bill of particulars as to how the United States has interfered with the reconstruction of any country.

We poured $11,000,000,000 into Soviet Russia, much of which Stalin used for laying the basis for the present industrial complex of Soviet Russia. As a matter of fact, the United States has aided many of the Communist and Socialist countries of Europe to rebuild themselves. We have poured more than one billion dollars into Yugoslavia which is a Communist country, although Tito's Communism deviates from Khrushchev's at the present time.

Frenberg's reading of history brings him to this conclusion: "... It seems that when a new social or economic system comes into being it has to go through a period of intensive slavery before it reaches a point where more liberty and freedom can be allowed. That is the way it was with the Capitalism system and it seems reasonable to suppose it will be the same with the Communist system if it succeeds in becoming an established and stable economic system. So then, I would be inclined to say that living within the Soviet Empire sometime in the future, would quite probably not be enslavement and living death."

It is an interesting view, particularly for a person who lives in the United States where he enjoys not only the highest standard of living known to man but also the largest budget of human liberty. If the Russians have to employ slavery to make their system work, why not try Capitalism without slavery? Of course, that is precisely what the Russians are doing in a modified form. They have adopted the wage system, as highly differentiated as ours; they have adopted a reward system, additional to wages, which sets up a new privileged class with privileges far beyond ours, including freedom from taxes.

Frenberg is "inclined to say that living within the Soviet Empire sometime in the future" will not be so bad. That is pie-in-the-sky. It is mindful of the ancient I.W.W. song:

In the sweet bye and bye
There'll be pie-in-the-sky
Bye and bye,
Live on hay
Work all day
There'll be pie-in-the-sky
When you die.

It is not much satisfaction for most of us to wait for the future while suffering the suppression of freedom on the assumption that freedom will some day come.

LAFF-A-DAY

"Sorry I'm late for dinner, dear. I overslept at the office!"

New Drugs Hold Promise

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

New drugs are coming out every month. While it is impossible to tell you about all of them, I would like to discuss four today in our regular review of medicine.

The persons who suffer a total of more than 5,000,000 sinus headaches each year probably will be interested in a new compound specifically designed to help relieve such headaches.

It's called Sinutab. Reportedly, it raises the pain threshold, interrupts the pain mechanism and relieves tension and anxiety.

Sinus headache has much in common with certain other types of headaches. In these instances, dilation of blood vessels is as a rule, the immediate cause of pain.

This dilation also brings on the nasal and sinus congestion and discharge which many sinus victims usually blame as the cause of the pain.

Another new drug, Decadron, is designed for treating rheumatic-arthritis diseases, bronchial asthma and other respiratory allergies, as well as allergic and inflammatory eye and skin disorders.

It is said to be particularly useful in cases in which chronic bronchial asthma is complicated by diabetes. Whereas, even small doses of other corticosteroids might aggravate the diabetic condition, researchers report Decadron provides adequate control of the asthma without aggravating the diabetes.

There is also a new laxative, in fact it's the first effervescent bulk laxative to be produced. The manufacturers report that clinical studies indicate it is effective in treating each of the major types of constipation.

It has a lemon flavor. Chemically, the principal of its action is often similar to that of prunes. It does not produce the diarrhea that is many times associated with strong cathartics.

Still another new drug is designed to lower blood pressure. This man-made, reserpine-like antihypertensive reportedly is virtually free of side effects and is said to have a marked ability to reduce high blood pressure.

It is especially tailored for patients requiring little or no sedation for effective blood pressure reduction.

Question and Answer

A Reader: I have stinging pains in my intestines. X-rays showed diverticulosis. Is this anything to be concerned about?

Answer: Diverticulosis can be controlled by proper management of diet and medication. At times, the condition tends to become aggravated, causing severe pain in the abdomen and frequently a temperature.

A person suffering from this condition should be under the care of a physician.

Censorship Claimed; Talk Is Canceled

CLEVELAND (AP)—Col. Harry A. Toulmin Jr. of Dayton has canceled the speech he was to make here Friday, claiming it was censored.

The chairman of the Commonwealth Engineering Corp. was to address a joint luncheon of the Invest in America Committee and the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

Tuesday, he wired Elmer L. Linseth, chairman of the committee, that Don Knowlton of the public relations firm of Hill & Knowlton of Cleveland, wrote him that Linseth was alarmed over some of Toulmin's statements about unions in his prepared speech and requested that the speech be toned down.

Linseth, president of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co., denied he had made any suggestions about Toulmin's speech.

"This is the first time in my experience that a speech of mine has been censored and no self-respecting man would consent," Toulmin said in his telegram.

Toulmin's prepared text said that the danger to investing in America is not from the Communists, but from union men.

"The reason for unemployment is that union labor has priced itself out of the market," he added.

In 1807, eight out of ten persons earned their living by farming.

The World Today

By James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a pleasant, warm, sunny day outside as President Eisenhower answered questions at his news conference Wednesday. The question about Iraq was just one among others.

And the President's answer didn't take long. Yet the question and answer threw across the room a somber shadow hardly noticeable as the reporters pressed ahead with other questions of their own.

For in Iraq — and what may happen to it and the Middle East later — lies the possibility of one of America's greatest cold war defeats.

Just the day before, Allen Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee: Communists are in almost complete control in Iraq.

If they are, then it would seem in a short time they should be able to take over. If they delay, it will be because of these two things:

1. That Moscow, for reasons of its own, will order the takeover delayed.

2. That the United States and its Allies will come up with some policy to prevent it. Sen. J. William Fulbright, chairman of the committee, said the situation is not hopeless if such a policy can be found.

But none is in sight now. Two years ago Iraq was linked with the United States through its defense agreement with Iran, Turkey, Pakistan. That was when Eisenhower asked, and Congress approved, a declaration that the President could use U.S. troops to help any Mideast country against armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism.

One of the weak spots in that policy has always been this: What can the United States do if native Communists take over a country from within, and without obvious outside aggression?

Last summer when the Iraqi army overthrew the government — which had linked itself with this country by killing the King, Eisenhower sent American troops into neighboring Lebanon.

Lebanon itself at the time was torn by civil war. Eisenhower said he acted then on the request of the Lebanese President, Camille Chamoun, to guard American lives and protect Lebanon against indirect aggression.

But could Eisenhower use these powers to send American troops into Iraq to prevent a Communist takeover from within? It seems unlikely.

For one thing, Iraq's Premier Abdel Karim Kassem, who led the revolution against the King, has surrounded himself with Communists. If they took over, they'd be his boys, not outsiders.

And even if he tried to disown them at the last moment, he might be eliminated too fast to do what the Lebanese President did: ask for American help.

If the Reds take over in Iraq, which is completely shut off from border contact with the Soviet Union by its neighbors, the Soviets would have their first firm foothold in the Middle East. It would be a colossal disaster for the West.

At his news conference the President was asked if there was any way to save Iraq from slipping behind the Iron Curtain. There was nothing concrete in the President's answer.

Most of what he said can be summed up in his last paragraph: "If there is anything we can do to promote better relations with this country without making other enemies in the same region, why that is a good policy" to follow. And we do follow it."

Weight Tax Urged for Truck Users

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Senate State Government Committee has recommended passage of a bill to junk the controversial axle-mile tax in favor of a gross weight tax on trucks.

A 4-2 vote Tuesday night sent the bill to a doubtful future on the Senate floor.

The axle-mile tax, adopted in 1953, taxes the big trucks—those with three or more axles—on the basis of the number of miles they travel annually. The tax ranges from one-half to 2½ cents a mile.

The gross weight tax, sponsored by Sen. Charles J. Carney (D-Mahoning), taxes all trucks of 7,000 pounds or more regardless of the use they make of the highways. Minimum tax would be $24 a year and the maximum $252.

Backers of the gross weight tax estimate it would produce slightly less than 12½ million dollars a year. Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers said the axle-mile tax is producing more than 13½ million a year.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has said he has no objection to junking the axle-mile tax provided its replacement produces as much revenue or more.

He points out all of the axle-mile tax revenue is being used to retire the 500-million-dollar highway construction bond issue authorized by the voters the same year the highway use tax was adopted by the Legislature.

The gross weight tax would apply to many trucks operated by department stores, dairies and bakeries. Unlike the axle-mile tax, it would not apply to out-of-state trucks.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

PAUL WANER, an all-time great of baseball, was on a hunting trip during the off-season, and came to a town in Oklahoma where a big ball game was scheduled with the champs of the county seat nearby. The town elders of course pleaded with Paul to get into the game, but the other team's manager was justifiably outraged at the idea. "How about letting me play if I bat left-handed?" suggested Paul, and that's the way it was settled.

All Waner did that day was bang out three home runs and two triples. And in case you don't recall, Waner made all of his hits while playing the outfield for the Pittsburgh Pirates—every one of the hits made batting left-handed.

J. W. Hamilton was mildly startled when one of his friends confided, "I'm very fond of the human race. All of my friends have belonged to it—and even some of my wife's family, too!"

Panchen Ignores India Invitation

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's puppet ruler of Tibet, the Panchen Lama, today rejected an invitation to visit India for peace talks with the self-exiled Dalai Lama.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru, who granted the 23-year-old Dalai Lama asylum after his flight from the Chinese Communists, had suggested the meeting as a move to end the Tibetan rebellion.

The Panchen Lama stood by the claim of the Chinese overlords that his holy colleague had been kidnapped.

Nehru has branded as a lie Communist claims that the Dalai Lama is a captive.

The name of the state of Arizona comes from the Spanish name of "Arida Zona," meaning "dry area."

Civil Rights Bill Signed By Governor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has joined 13 other states in banning job discrimination because of race, religion or national origin.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle signed into law legislation creating Ohio's first Civil Rights Commission.

Members of minority groups jammed the governor's Statehouse office for the signing.

"Today marks a step forward for decency in the state of Ohio," the Democrat governor said in a prepared statement issued at the signing.

"It seems incongruous that in a nation that has prided itself on the achievement of the democratic principles of equality, that in the latter part of the 20th Century it is still necessary to adopt legislation guaranteeing to individuals equal opportunities for employment."

"This legislation is not an attempt to legislate morality but it is, in effect, an implementation of our bill of rights. . . ."

"What if I had vetoed this?" DiSalle asked those crowded about his desk.

A wave of laughter greeted the jest.

The new law provides for a five-member commission appointed by the governor, subject to Senate confirmation. The commission will

Postman Held; Wife Cashes Many Coupons

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Investigators said supermarket operators became curious when Mrs. Elwood E. Kist demanded cash upon redeeming large groups of coupons. They said she cashed as high as $50 worth of coupons at a time. She had 400 altogether.

Her postman husband was jailed on a charge of stealing merchandise coupons mailed to residents on his route. He denies guilt.

Man, Daughter Die; Heart Trouble Hinted

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — The bodies of a man and his schoolteacher daughter were found Wednesday night in their apartment.

Police said Thomas E. Stafford, 72, and his daughter Ruth, 40, apparently died last Monday. Both had histories of heart trouble.

Police theorized Miss Stafford collapsed and her father was stricken while trying to help her. The bodies were discovered by a son, Frederick E. Stafford of Holyoke.

Hedges Chapel Scene of DAR Meet Tuesday Afternoon

Brief descriptions of events occurring at the state conference were noted by several of the 33 members of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution who assembled Tuesday afternoon at Hedges Chapel. Mrs. Harold Slagle of Washington C. H. was welcomed as a guest.

A clarinet quartette, directed by Mary Jo Gaskalla and composed of Walnut Twp. pupils Susie Hoffhines, Lynn Noecker, Patty Collins, and Jackie Lindsey, provided musical selections, "Sarabande" and "Pizzicato Polka". Karen Duval, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Siebert Duval, played a saxophone solo. Near the end of the meeting, each girl was presented with a souvenir booklet in Lincoln published in commemoration of the Lincoln Sesquicentennial.

The meeting was opened in the regular manner with the regent, Mrs. R. R. Bales and chaplain, Miss Florence Brown, assisting in the ritual. After the salute to the flag and national anthem, everyone observed a few moments of silence in respect for Miss Florence Hoffman, deceased.

Mrs. Richard Hedges began the order of business by reading the minutes of the last meeting and recommendations of the board which were approved. Recommendations referred to reimbursement of the regent for purchase of Roster III of Ohio Revolutionary Soldiers and for booklets entitled, "What The Daughters Do," which will be distributed May 21 at the social session of the Women's Association. Miss Alice Ada May was named head of a committee to direct the duties of the chapter at this meeting.

Correspondence from Mrs. Ray Erb, National Defense Chairman, John P. Tyson, Executive Secretary of Kate Duncan Smith School, and Ralph H. Cain, Superintendent of Tamassee was read by the secretary, expressing appreciation for contributions made to their special projects. Personal letters received from T. M. Sweeney of East Orange, N. J., Velma Kuhn, Sylvia Smith and Marvin Reichelderfer were also read.

Mrs. Forest Croman introduced members who attended the state conference, each responding with a short sketch of a different phase of the convention. Mrs. Joseph Peters informed the group of the opening night program which featured the address of President General Mrs. Frederick Groves and the reception which followed. Mrs. Groves emphasized that while the National Society is not opposed to the idea of a United Nations, it does feel that the execution of its many functions invites subversion, for delegates to the organization are cloaked in immunity and not subject to laws of the host country.

Mrs. Peters also related her experiences at the CAR convention in Cincinnati which had as its main speaker a special investigator of the FBI, Miss Marie Hamilton presented Mrs. Peters with a gavel and senior president pin for her work with the Circle Mound Chapter, CAR.

The Indian Breakfast at State Conference was recalled by Mrs. Stanley Croman, commenting on the talk of Kenyon Cull, headmaster of St. Mary's School for Indian Girls at Springfield, S. D. She concluded by reading the Indian version of the 23rd Psalm.

The Regent, Mrs. Bales, spoke on the interest attached to the speech of John H. Noble, author of "I Was A Slave In Russia," which gave the convention a serious tone. She showed the group a citation which acknowledged the chapter's attainment of the Gold Honor Roll. Also displayed were awards for high evaluation on the yearbook and first place in press relations.

Having recently returned from the Continental Congress in Washington D. C., the regent mentioned Ohio's receiving the National DAR Award for the best historical advertising, thus complementing the work on the Ohio Canals project accomplished under the state chairmanship of Miss Hamilton.

The members adjourned to the church basement where refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Arthur Hines, Miss Florence Brown, Mrs. Paul Cromley, Mrs. Harry Speakman, Mrs. C. E. Mahaffey, Mrs. William Cromley, Mrs. Warner Hedges, Mrs. Seymour Miller, Mrs. Rolland Featheringham.

Mrs. Holland Entertains Her Grandson

Mrs. Charles Holland Jr., Route 4, entertained her grandson, Terry Lee Crumley, on his 4th birthday Saturday with a surprise party.

The dining room was decorated and favors were placed at the table. Those attending were Stevie and Tony Ratcliff, David, Stevie and Sue Ellen Montgomery, Mickey Lynn Brungs, Carolyn Seyfang, Vera Congrove, Sue and Debbie Teets, Carol Spangler, Tony Kay and Brenda Louise Crumley, Larry, Charles and Richard Holland, Mrs. Glenn Ratcliff, Mrs. Edward Brungs, Mrs. Joanne Crumley and Mrs. David Montgomery. Mrs. Leslie Spangler assisted Mrs. Holland.

Miss Bennett Is Betrothed To Mr. Ogilvie

The Rev. and Mrs. Harley Paul Bennett, Columbus, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Ruth, to Mr. Robert Wendell Ogilvie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ogilvie, Columbus.

Miss Bennett is a graduate of

BETTY RUTH BENNETT

London High School and is employed by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. Mr. Ogilvie is a graduate of Central High School, Columbus, Ashbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, and is a post-graduate student at Ohio State University.

The open church wedding will take place June 5 at the North Church of Christ in Christian Union, Columbus.

The Rev. Bennett and his family lived in Circleville from 1947 to 1951 while serving in the Church of Christ in Christian Union here.

Mrs. Marion To Be Honored At Banquet

Mrs. Marion's Sunday School Class will hold its annual Mother-Daughter Banquet at 6:30 p. m. Monday at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. George Marion, for whom the class is named, will be an honored guest at the affair.

Reservations must be made by Friday with Mrs. Thoburn Blaney, GR4-3524 or Mrs. Roger Lozier, GR4-2710.

Circleville Forum Discusses Need For Culture In O-ville

"Circleville also needs a Cultural Master Plan," was the thought of members of Circleville Forum and the three members of the panel who discussed the topic during the April meeting of the group held on Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Thomas Matesky. However, as each possible plan was discussed, inevitably a member of the panel would suggest that its success probably would depend on finding capable and dedicated leadership. Members of the panel were Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. James Hedges and Mrs. Kenneth Luna. Mrs. Sterling Poling, program chairman for Circleville Forum, served as moderator.

The panel first discussed the cultural outlets now available in Circleville. It was pointed out that the necessity for long hours of practice has proved a handicap for most local music groups. Mrs. Hedges mentioned that several small groups get together occasionally with an assortment of instruments to play for their own enjoyment.

Mrs. Luna explained that art is taught in school only through the fifth grade and that there is a great demand for art classes locally and that a number of children also attend classes in Columbus. For adults the Art League and a number of craft and hobby groups have been organized. In the field of drama, Mrs. Mills pointed out that there are very few opportunities for young people to appear on a stage from the primary grades or the Children's Day recitation age until they are high school juniors and have an opportunity to appear in the junior class play.

In discussing the future Mrs. Luna suggested that in a little theater movement it would be possible for many people to pursue a variety of interests, from music to drama to art. She also pointed out the need for a community center which not only could house a little theater, but could serve as a hobby and craft center, meeting place and art and historical museum.

During the discussion at the close of the program it was suggested that there are many new people in Circleville who have come from larger cities where opportunities for participation in music, art and drama were much greater and that perhaps a spontaneous movement in any of these fields might bring forth talent and leadership from among these people.

Mrs. Mills suggested that it is always good to build any cultural movement around a special occasion, suggesting that observance of the Sesquicentennial next year could provide the beginning for a more permanent cultural movement in music, art or drama.

Mrs. Horace Luxon presided for the business session during which Mrs. Harold Moats was welcomed as a new member. Preliminary reports were heard on the Forum's current project of preparing a list of needed volunteer services to be distributed to potential volunteers. Mrs. Luxon said that transportation to Columbus for handicapped people and answering mail for welfare agencies topped the list of needed services thus far submitted, but that all agencies have not reported as yet.

Officers for next year were also elected at this session. Mrs. Robert Anderson was named president, Mrs. Sterling Poling, vice president; Mrs. Victor Rogers, recording secretary; Mrs. John Griffith, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Charles Sisco, treasurer. The next meeting of the group will be a luncheon on May 19. The hostess served dessert and coffee to the members and guests at the beginning of the meeting.

Mrs. Hedges Presents Demonstration

At the meeting of the Ashville Garden Club, Miss Frances Decker, program chairman, presented Mrs. Richard Hedges who gave a corsage-making demonstration.

The group met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Russell Hedges, Ashville. Seventeen members and two guests were present.

Miss Florence Brown, president, presided at the business meeting. Several items of business were discussed, and plans for the coming spring meeting and flower show, sponsored by Pickaway County Council of Garden Clubs, were made.

Easter bonnets made with spring flowers, made by the members, were modeled.

The election of officers will be held at the next meeting.

Dorcas Class Postpones Meet

The Dorcas Pathfinders Class of Calvary EUB Church will meet May 14 instead of May 7 as previously planned.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Poppy Sale

The American Legion Auxiliary appointed its committee for the Buddy Poppy Sale that will be held May 22 and 23 when it met Monday evening in the Legion Home for a pot-luck dinner. Members of this committee are Mrs. Harry Lane, Mrs. Bess Simison and Mrs. H. B. Hedges.

It was decided at the meeting to make a donation to the Cancer Society.

A nominating committee was appointed to elect candidates for the new slate of officers to be elected at the next meeting. They are Mrs. Irene Jenkins, Miss Maggie Mavis and Mrs. Frank Webbe.

WCTU Hears Talk On Temperance

At the meeting of the Pickaway County Women's Christian Temperance Union Mrs. Francis Furniss presented her part of the program concerning child welfare; Mrs. Loring Storer discussed the topic "Christian Citizenship" and Mrs. Florence Haughn gave a talk on "Parliamentary Law".

Mrs. Haughn presided over the meeting that was held Friday in the Oriental Methodist Church.

Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Tessa Younkman who later read a poem, "If Jesus Came to Your House".

At noon a covered-dish luncheon was served.

The afternoon session opened with the group singing, "Rescue the Perishing," and "Since Jesus Came into My Heart". The Rev. White then gave a talk on temperance.

The Five Points WCTU presented a playlet entitled "But Why?" with Mrs. Francis Furniss, Mrs. Loring Storer and Mer. Herman Porter participating.

Mrs. Younkman then presented a talk on radio and television.

DUV Plans Dinner Meet For Tuesday

The Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-1865, will have dinner at 7 p. m. Tuesday in Kern's Restaurant. They will meet afterwards at the Post Room of the Memorial Hall for their business meeting and inspection.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pork and beef battle to a stand-off this week to gain the attention of the bargain-seeking food shopper.

In addition, pork heads the federal government's "plentiful foods" list this month. For the first time since November 1956 the promotional drums are beating for pork in an attempt to ease the market glut of pigs born last fall.

In both cases featured buys are about evenly split between the more expensive cuts and the bargain items. Specials on steaks, for example, are no more numerous than those for chuck roast and stewing beef, while smoked hams

Carry-in Supper Enjoyed By Social Group

The Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club enjoyed a covered dish supper that preceded their meeting in the church basement Friday evening.

A committee was appointed to buy recreational supplies for the children in the Social Hour Club.

Mrs. Richard Redman presented a reading "Poor Mrs. McGee", Mrs. Elbert Rawlins, "Praise — Don't Nag" and Mrs. Elbee Jones read "To Be Successful".

Thirty-four members were present. Mrs. Herman Porter gave the secretary's report and read thank you notes from Mrs. Etta Neff, Mrs. Helen Phillips and Mrs. Ray Hanawalt for the flowers from the club received by them when they were ill.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Redman and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rawlins.

The meeting closed with group singing of "An Evening Prayer".

Make up some old-fashioned boiled dressing and then add lemon juice and chopped sweet mixed pickles to it for a delightful sauce for shrimp or other seafood.

run about even with less expensive types of pork.
Leg of lamb also is featured in a number of places, but specials on fryers are few and far between.

While most Americans still eat more fresh vegetables than processed ones, supplies of both canned and frozen vegetables are plentiful. Statistics show we eat about 85 pounds of fresh vegetables per person a year compared with 44 pounds of canned and 7 1/2 of frozen.

Best of the fresh this week are artichokes, pascal celery, cooking greens such as spinach, kale and collard, parsnips, turnips, potatoes and iceberg lettuce.

Rated as good buys by produce men are broccoli, new cabbage, topped or bunched carrots, eggplant, sweet corn, peas, peppers, radishes from nearby farms, sweet potatoes, mushrooms and nearby parsley.

Federal seers predicted an onion crop 30 per cent below last year. Prices suffered a notable decline this week, however, due to increasing supplies from Texas and New York fields.

Just about every variety of citrus is on the best buy list among fruits. This might be expected with the latest estimates showing the total crop 11 per cent ahead of last year and 3 per cent above average. Other bargains are apples, pineapples and bananas.

Ohio Idle Pay List Now 90,000 Weekly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Claimants for unemployment compensation in Ohio will average around 90,000 per week this month compared with 218,000 per week in the same month last year.

The 90,000 includes those claimants whose rights for benefits were recently extended, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today. Regular claimants will average about 80,000 a week.

Solution to State Financial Trouble Seen Only in Taxes

By CHARLES STAFFORD
Associated Press Writer

"Maybe," an eastern Kentucky civic leader said, "we should secede from the United States and apply for foreign aid."

He was discussing remedies for the ailing economy of his area, where mechanization and depression in the coal industry have caused widespread unemployment.

The secession proposal was delivered tongue-in-cheek, but many a state official would get the point. A check of state capitals by The Associated Press indicates that 29 states are encountering some measure of financial difficulty today.

Higher taxes are the common remedy.

Cigarettes are a favorite target of the revenue hunters of 1959. Sales and income tax increases also are common.

Withholding plans for state income taxes, which increase revenue by cornering tax dodgers, have been adopted by Utah, Massachusetts, South Carolina, and New York. Five more states are seriously considering them.

Some tax programs have been whoppers.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio has presented the Legislature with plans to increase cigarette, beer, corporation franchise, gasoline and diesel fuel taxes. Sales taxes are to be upped to produce some 119 million dollars in the next two years. Adopted without change, DiSalle's program would produce 360 million dollars in new revenue in the next two years.

New York raised its tax revenue 239 million dollars. The Pennsylvania Legislature is studying Gov. David L. Lawrence's proposal for an additional 237 million in taxes to balance the record-breaking biennial budget of $1,907,000,000. The lawmakers have already raised the 3 per cent sales tax to 3½ per cent, making it second only to Washington state's 4 per cent.

Getting a new tax program approved isn't an easy matter. The Minnesota Legislature adjourned April 24 after 3½ months of work without finding the 84 million dollars needed to balance Gov. Orville L. Freeman's proposed 470-million-dollar budget.

The governor, who has recommended increases in liquor, cigarette, tobacco, iron ore, gifts, inheritances and income taxes, called the lawmakers back into special session the very next day to finish the job.

In Massachusetts, Gov. Foster Furcolo's efforts to balance his 456-million-dollar budget have touched off a fight within his Democratic party. He proposed that the Democratic-controlled Legislature enact a sales tax.

However, the No. 1 plank in the Democrats' campaign platform was a stand against the sales tax.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California, a Democrat, has asked a politically friendly Legislature to tax cigarettes, oil and gas and increase taxes on horse racing, beer and income to provide 256 million dollars in new revenue. His headache: a rapidly expanding deficit.

In Georgia, economy is the word. Gov. Ernest Vandiver, who ran on a platform of no new taxes unless absolutely necessary, ordered state departments to reduce their operating expenses by 10 per cent during the final quarter of the fiscal year, which ends June 30. The Legislature economized by elimination and consolidation of several agencies.

The governor is holding a tight rein on budget requests. He has a committee studying government reorganization and economy. And he has ordered a crackdown on loose practices in the purchasing and tax departments where there have been irregularities in recent years.

Oklahoma, where Gov. J. Howard Edmondson is trimming the fat from the state payroll and cutting other state expenses, solved part of its revenue problem in an old-fashioned way. Its citizens voted the repeal of prohibition.

Sometimes the answer to a state's financial worries is heaven-sent. North Dakota is entering the new biennium with a 10-million-dollar surplus, thanks to last year's fine crop harvest.

U.S. Buyer Said Fed Up With Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—An industrialist said today that American consumers are fed up with rising prices and more and more are buying cheaper foreign products.

Unless labor and management curb the wage-price spiral, the consumer will do the job in a manner painful to both employers and working men, Herman W. Steinkraus cautioned in an address prepared for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

"If we are to meet the challenge of foreign competition we will need domestic prices which make such foreign competition less attractive," said Steinkraus, board chairman of a Bridgeport (Conn.) Brass Co. and a former president of the U.S. Chamber.

"To make these lower prices we will certainly have to stop not only this upward spiral of wage increases and general fringe benefits but will have to get greater productivity from all of our people on our payrolls."

"Otherwise we will lose the business and there will be a new spiral. It will be a spiral of statistics of growing unemployment."

Steinkraus told the businessmen the impact of foreign competition has only begun to be felt. "We are in for serious trouble," he said.

The opposite view was voiced at another chamber session by Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.) who noted it has "become fashionable to talk about the United States pricing itself out of world markets."

Paraguay Relaxes Law

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—Paraguay's President Alfredo Stroessner has once again lifted the state of siege kept in force with occasional breaks since 1957.

After the original 13 colonies, the first states to be admitted to the union were Vermont, Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio.

British Wreckage Found in Turkey

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A wrecked plane spotted today on a bleak mountaintop in southeast Turkey was identified tentatively as a British air freighter missing with secret parts for Britain's rocket range in Australia.

It had been feared that the plane had come down in the southern Soviet Union.

There was no immediate word of any survivors. Twelve men were aboard the aircraft, which disappeared last Thursday.

RAF headquarters in Nicosia said the evidence was fairly conclusive that the wreckage was from the missing Avro Tudor. A ground party was to be dispatched to the site.

Area School News

NEW HOLLAND Grade School News First Grade

We have five pupils in our room who have had perfect attendance up to the last six weeks period which begins this week. They were: Steven Bryant, Diane Day, Johnny Hart, Ronette Minshall and Carol Lee Rowland.

Those who got 100 on the last vocabulary test were: Janet Adams, Steven Bryant, Becky Durlinger, Tommy Gifford, Ronette Minshall, Becky Moss, barger, Carol Lee Rowland, Julie Wilson, Patsy Smith and Pamela Manuel. Billy Klever and Ivan Knapp missed only one word.

Group I has finished reading the basic reader, "Our New Friends," and is now reading "We Three," a "reading for independence" book. Group II is reading in the third unit of "Our New Friends."

Eighteen boys and girls in our room attended Sunday School.

Second Grade

WE ARE ALL sorry that Eddie Morrow is a patient in Memorial Hospital, Washington C. H., with a broken arm. He was riding his pony, last Thursday evening, when the accident happened. He will be in the hospital for several days.

The following pupils made a grade of 100 in Friday's spelling test: Roger Walters, Larry Ankrom, Glenna Jo Woods, Gregory Shaw, Diane Travis, Gary Rohrer, Debbie Travis, Barbara Conkle, Vivian Thacker, Janice Arledge, Marilyn Ferguson, Cindy Cottrill, Diana Jo Eckle, David Gilmerr, Nancy Collett, Connie Teets and Melanie Oesterle.

Ten boys and girls attended Sunday School.

Third Grade

Twenty-four pupils in our class received 100 in spelling last week. Sonny Saxour got 96. The other pupils were: Patty Conkle, Peggy Cook, Linda Gifford, Debbie Hill, Linda Lemaster, Peggy Marvin, Clarisse McCune, Mary Ann Mossbarger, Joyce Speakman, Paulette Wood, Ann Parker, Ronald Manuel.

Jerry Smith, Johnny Saxour, David Shaeffer, Stephen Satchell, Charles Root Jr., Howard Knapp Jr., Dana Kirkpatrick, Larry Johnson, Glendon Hart, Bryan Cupp and Jay Cottrill.

In an English review test of 36 answers, these third graders received 100: Peggy Cook, Peggy Marvin, Mary Ann Mossbarger and Joyce Speakman. The children who got an A in the test were: Paulette Wood, Jerry Smith, Johnny Saxour, Ronnie Salyers, Bryan Cupp, Linda Lemaster, Howard Knapp Jr., Debbie Hill and Linda Gifford.

Fifth Grade

THE BOYS AND GIRLS who attended Sunday School were: Patty Morgan, Dicky Hickie, Virginia Thacker, Roger Kirk, Genie Orinhood, Carolyn Shadley, Sherry Thacker, Sue Travis, Dick Doyle, Bessie Wilcox, Doris Williams, Bruce Kirk and Roger Satchell.

We now have only five who have not missed a day of school. They are Doris Williams, Bruce Kirk, Sarah Funk, Bessie Wilcox and Genie Orinhood.

Sixth Grade

Our class had perfect attendance last week for the first time in the last five weeks. We were happy as our attendance has been very good all year until this old "flu bug" caught up with us.

We now have only nine boys who have a perfect record so far this year. We trust they can continue on with such a record.

Our honor roll has dropped some for the past six weeks. The pupils who have B or better are: Beverly Cupp, Brenda Fletcher, Judy Free, Joe Lux, William McCune and Dwight Turner.

Eighth Grade

Our eighth grade tests were taken Friday, and we are glad that they are over and that we are now into the last six weeks period of the school year.

WE HAVE HANDED in our history books and, for the last six weeks, will be studying Ohio government during history classes.

The eighth and ninth grades were visited on Monday by Dan O'Brien, a Jeffersonville teacher. He talked to us about a ninth and tenth grade football team made up of ninth and tenth graders from all Miami Trace schools.

This team would not start playing any games until this grade would be in the tenth grade.

Problem for the week: How many of you readers know the height of the flag pole in front of the high school? We have appointed a committee of two to be flag pole measurers and we'll have the answer in next week's news.

Bisonburger Feeds Slated in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Visitors here this summer for Oregon's 100th birthday will be offered a special meal: bisonburgers.

Twenty-two Montana bison arrived Monday at the Portland Union Stockyards. The shaggy beasts will be fed, fattened, slaughtered and ground into bisonburgers.

The special burgers will be served at the 100-day Oregon Centennial Exposition & International Trade Fair that opens here June 10.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Hand Outstretched, Palm Up

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl 19 years old and I have a very good paying job. I manage to save a little something out of my pay check every payday. I go steady with a guy who is 20. He hasn't had a steady job in a year. I love him very much and want some day to be his wife. But I am sick of paying both ways everywhere we go. He says "money isn't everything" but, Abby, it is making me lose my respect for him. Have you any advice?

His argument doesn't hold water—but he should try some.

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter 14 years of age. She is going to have a baby. I would like to put her in a home for unwed mothers. Nobody should know, please. Will you tell me how to contact such a home? I can pay a little but not much. Thank you.

DEAR ABBY: Get in touch with your FAMILY SERVICE ASSOCIATION. If there is none in your area, call your local COMMUNITY CHEST. If you are unable to find either, send me your name and address and I will put you in touch with a Home for Unwed Mothers nearest to you. This will be kept strictly confidential. Good luck.

J. M.
DEAR J. M.: Your boyfriend should not PERMIT you to pay both ways, and if you continue to do so, you are making a sad mistake. Girls who let men lean on them encourage weakness and dependence. Don't give this fellow your hand unless you want HIS outstretched (palm up) for the rest of your life.

DEAR ABBY: I understand how "OVERCOME" feels because I have the same problem with my husband. He not only refuses to take a bath, but won't shampoo his hair or cut his fingernails or toenails unless I start a real battle royal. His argument is he has to build up an immunity to germs. (What germs would live on him?) Is this a sensible argument or am I crazy?

ALSO OVERCOME
DEAR ALSO: Cleanliness (in addition to being next to Godliness) is essential to good health.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS
Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned Auditor of the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio, at his office in the City Hall, Circleville, Ohio, until 12 o'clock noon Eastern Standard Time, on the 22nd day of May, 1959, at which time said bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of said City in the aggregate amount of $137,000.

Said bids will be promptly considered by the Council of said City.
Said bonds shall be dated the first day of June, 1959, shall be in the denomination of $1,000 each, shall be numbered consecutively commencing with Number 1, shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the first day of June and on the first day of December of each year, beginning December 1, 1959, at the rate of four per centum per annum, but anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $13,000 on December 1 in each year from 1960 to 1962 and $14,000 on December 1 in each year from 1963 to 1969, inclusive. The amount of said issue is subject to reduction and the maturities to adjustment accordingly, in the event of cash payments of assessments received by the City before the date of sale.

Said bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Circleville Sewer District No. 1, and are payable at the City's legal depository, presently The Third National Bank of Circleville, and are supported by limited taxes.

Said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by the said Auditor by lot. All bids must be accompanied by a bond or certified check on a solvent bank (other than the bidder) payable to the City of Circleville in the amount of one per cent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds within a reasonable time after the award thereof or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled.

Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bids for Sewer District Improvement Bonds".
The proceedings for the issue have been taken under the supervision of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, Bond Attorneys, Cleveland, Ohio, whose approving opinion will be furnished to the successful bidder at the City's expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the City, together with a certificate showing no litigation pending or threatened at the time of the delivery, to enjoin delivery or to contest the validity of the bonds or the power to issue them or the levy of taxes for their payment.

In the event the interest on said bonds should by act of Congress become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his bond or certified check will be returned without interest.

It is contemplated that said Council of the City will meet at 11:30 o'clock A. M. on the 22nd day of May, 1959, to consider said bids and make an award. The right is reserved to reject bids. City of Circleville, Ohio

Briton Stuck With Piano

Star Came To U. S. Mainly for Sunshine

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dirk Bogarde, Britain's top leading man, finally succumbed to the lure of Hollywood to seek some sunshine. So what happens?

He has been spending 10 hours a day in a stuffy rehearsal hall learning to play the piano.

The reason is that he is portraying Franz Liszt in Columbia's "The Magic Flame." Since Liszt was a whiz at the keyboard, Dirk has been forced into long practice so he can look convincing.

During a rare moment of relaxation at the Bel-Air Hotel, Bogarde explained why he held out so long against the Hollywood offers.

"I was doing well in British films, so there didn't seem much reason to come over here, where I was little known. In England, I had approval of director and co-stars and story veto, which I probably couldn't get here.

"Then I fell ill with double pneumonia and pleurisy and was holding on — not very anxiously — to my life. I finally decided I had better get out of the English climate and find some sunshine."

He has managed to steal some time from the piano to make some observations on his first trip to California.

"It's much more beautiful than I had been led to expect by expatriates and other malcontents who have returned to England."

Nor was he distressed by our smog — "It's hardly noticeable, compared to the air we have in England."

Hawaii State Surplus Greater Than Expected

HONOLULU (AP) — Gov. William F. Quinn says Hawaii's government will have a surplus of about nine million dollars more than expected for the current two-year period and the next.

He told a news conference Tuesday he hopes the Legislature will use the surplus for capital improvements and pay raises for government employees.

IT'S A 'MOBOT'—These photos illustrate workings of Hughes Aircraft's new mobile robot, or "Mobot," which some day might be the first "man" to move around on the moon. Right now it's for handling "hot" radioactive materials, and can be operated either via cable or radio. It has flexible steel "hands" and TV "eyes." Sketch at left shows how the "Mobot" would move about on the moon, and be operated by a man inside the space craft. Photo shows it operating a drill by remote control. The other sketch shows its plan of action, inside a "hot" chamber, but operated from outside. The operator can watch via TV, and can "feel" the "hands." (Central Press)

Area School News

NEW HOLLAND Grade School News First Grade

We have five pupils in our room who have had perfect attendance up to the last six weeks period which begins this week. They were: Steven Bryant, Diane Day, Johnny Hart, Ronette Minshall and Carol Lee Rowland.

Those who got 100 on the last vocabulary test were: Janet Adams, Steven Bryant, Becky Durlinger, Tommy Gifford, Ronette Minshall, Becky Mossbarger, Carol Lee Rowland, Debby Satchell, Bonnie Sutton, Julie Wilson, Patsy Smith and Pamela Manuel. Billy Klever and Ivan Knapp missed only one word.

Group I has finished reading the basic reader, "Our New Friends," and is now reading "We Three," a "reading for independence" book. Group II is reading in the third unit of "Our New Friends."

Eighteen boys and girls in our room attended Sunday School.

Second Grade

WE ARE ALL sorry that Eddie Morrow is a patient in Memorial Hospital, Washington C. H., with a broken arm. He was riding his pony, last Thursday evening, when the accident happened. He will be in the hospital for several days.

The following pupils made a grade of 100 in Friday's spelling test: Roger Walters, Larry Ankrom, Glenn Jo Woods, Gregory Shaw, Diane Travis, Gary Rohrer, Debbie Travis, Barbara Conkle, Vivian Thacker, Janice Arledge, Marilyn Ferguson, Cindy Cottrill, Diana Jo Eckle, David Gilmerr, Nancy Collett, Connie Teets and Melanie Oesterle.

Ten boys and girls attended Sunday School.

Third Grade

Twenty-four pupils in our class received 100 in spelling last week. Sonny Saxour got 96. The other pupils were: Patty Conkle, Peggy Cook, Linda Gifford, Debbie Hill, Linda Lemaster, Peggy Marvin, Clarisse McCune, Mary Ann Mossbarger, Joyce Speakman, Paulette Wood, Ann Parker, Ronald Manuel.

Jerry Smith, Johnny Saxour, David Shaeffer, Stephen Satchell, Charles Root Jr., Howard Knapp Jr., Dana Kirkpatrick, Larry Johnson, Glendon Hart, Bryan Cupp and Jay Cottrill.

In an English review test of 36 answers, these third graders received 100: Peggy Cook, Peggy Marvin, Mary Ann Mossbarger, and Joyce Speakman. The children who got an A in the test were: Paulette Wood, Jerry Smith, Johnny Saxour, Ronnie Salyers, Bryan Cupp, Linda Lemaster, Howard Knapp Jr., Debbie Hill and Linda Gifford.

Fifth Grade

THE BOYS AND GIRLS who attended Sunday School were: Patty Morgan, Dicky Hickie, Virginia Thacker, Roger Kirk, Genie Orihood, Carolyn Shadley, Sherry Thacker, Sue Travis, Dick Doyle, Bessie Wilcox, Doris Williams, Bruce Kirk and Roger Satchell.

We now have only five who have not missed a day of school. They are: Doris Williams, Bruce Kirk, Sarah Funk, Bessie Wilcox and Genie Orihood.

Sixth Grade

Our class had perfect attendance last week for the first time in the last five weeks. We were happy as our attendance has been very good all year until this old "flu bug" caught up with us.

We now have only nine boys who have a perfect record so far this year. We trust they can continue on with such a record.

Our honor roll has dropped some for the past six weeks. The pupils who have B or better are: Beverly Cupp, Brenda Fletcher, Judy Free, Joe Lux, William McCune and Dwight Turner.

Eighth Grade

Our eighth grade tests were taken Friday, and we are glad that they are over and that we are now into the last six weeks period of the school year.

WE HAVE HANDED in our history books and, for the last six weeks, will be studying Ohio government during history classes.

The eighth and ninth grades were visited on Monday by Dan O'Brien, a Jeffersonville teacher. He talked to us about a ninth and tenth grade football team made up of ninth and tenth graders from all Miami Trace schools.

This team would not start playing any games until this grade would be in the tenth grade.

Problem for the week: How many of you readers know the height of the flag pole in front of the high school? We have appointed a committee of two to be flag pole measurers and we'll have the answer in next week's news.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Hand Outstretched, Palm Up

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl 19 years old and I have a very good paying job. I manage to save a little something out of my pay check every payday. I go steady with a guy who is 20. He hasn't had a steady job in a year. I love him very much and want some day to be his wife. But I am sick of paying both ways everywhere we go. He says "money isn't everything" but, Abby, it is making me lose my respect for him. Have you any advice?

His argument doesn't hold water — but he should try some.

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter 14 years of age. She is going to have a baby. I would like to put her in a home for unwed mothers. Nobody should know, please. Will you tell me how to contact such a home? I can pay a little but not much. Thank you.

HEART-SICK MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Get in touch with your FAMILY SERVICE ASSOCIATION. If there is none in your area, call your local COMMUNITY CHEST. If you are unable to find either, send me your name and address and I will put you in touch with a Home for Unwed Mothers nearest to you. This will be kept strictly confidential. Good luck.

J. M.
DEAR J. M.: Your boyfriend should not PERMIT you to pay both ways, and if you continue to do so, you are making a sad mistake. Girls who let men lean on them encourage weakness and dependence. Don't give this fellow your hand unless you want HIS outstretched (palm up) for the rest of your life.

DEAR ABBY: I understand how "OVERCOME" feels because I have the same problem with my husband. He not only refuses to take a bath, but won't shampoo his hair or cut his fingernails or toenails unless I start a real battle royal. His argument is he has to build up an immunity to germs. (What germs would live on him?) Is this a sensible argument or am I crazy?

ALSO OVERCOME
DEAR ALSO: Cleanliness (in addition to being next to Godliness) is essential to good health.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS
Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned Auditor of the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio, at his office in the City Hall, Circleville, Ohio, on the 22nd day of May, 1959, at which time said bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of said City in the aggregate amount of $137,000.

Said bids will be promptly considered by the Council of said City.
Said bonds shall be dated the first day of June, 1959, shall be in the denomination of $1,000 each, shall be numbered consecutively commencing with Number 1, shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the first day of June and on the first day of December of each year, beginning December 1, 1959, at the rate of four per centum per annum, but anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $13,000 on December 1 in each year from 1960 to 1962 and $14,000 on December 1 in each year from 1963 to 1969, inclusive. The amount of said issue is subject to reduction and the maturities to adjustment accordingly, in the event of cash payments of assessments received by the City before the date of sale.
Said bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Circleville Sewer District No. 1, and are payable at the City's legal debt, presently The Third National Bank of Circleville, and are supported by limited taxes.

Said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by the said Auditor by lot. All bids must be accompanied by a bond or certified check on a solvent bank (other than the bidder) payable to the City of Circleville in the amount of one per cent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds within a reasonable time after the award thereof or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled.
Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid for Sewer District Improvement Bonds".

The proceedings for the issue have been taken under the supervision of Squire Sanders & Dempsey, Bond Attorneys, Cleveland, Ohio, whose approving opinion will be furnished to the successful bidder at the City's expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the City, together with a certificate showing no litigation pending or threatened at the time of the delivery, to entitle delivery or to contest the validity of the bonds or the power to issue them or the levy of taxes for their payment.

In the event the interest on said bonds should by act of Congress become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his bond or certified check will be returned without interest.
It is contemplated that said Council of the City will meet at 11:30 o'clock A. M. on the 22nd day of May, 1959, to consider said bids and make an award. The right is reserved to reject bids.

Hawaii State Surplus Greater Than Expected

HONOLULU (AP) — Gov. William F. Quinn says Hawaii's government will have a surplus of about nine million dollars more than expected for the current two-year period and the next.

He told a news conference Tuesday he hopes the Legislature will use the surplus for capital improvements and pay raises for government employes.

IT'S A "MOBOT"—These photos illustrate workings of Hughes Aircraft's new mobile robot, or "Mobot," which some day might be the first "man" to move around on the moon. Right now it's for handling "hot" radioactive materials, and can be operated either via cable or radio. It has flexible steel "hands" and TV "eyes." Sketch at left shows how the "Mobot" would move about on the moon, and be operated by a man inside the space craft. Photo shows it operating a drill by remote control. The other sketch shows its plan of action, inside a "hot" chamber, but operated from outside. The operator can watch via TV, and can "feel" the "hands." (Central Press)

Ex-State Legislator Dies at Age of 86

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Services will be held at the Presbyterian Church in Utica Saturday for George Kirkpatrick, 86-year-old former state representative, who died at his Knox County farm Wednesday night. When the veteran Republican lawmaker retired in 1957 after serving 10 terms in the Ohio House, he was the oldest legislator in the history of the General Assembly. At that time, his colleagues bestowed upon him the title of honorary House speaker for life.

American Firms Ponder France For Expansion

Licensing Companies Abroad Is Seen Way To Enter Markets

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
PARIS (AP)—Many American companies who don't want to build plants here but still want to get the competitive advantages of being inside the market are turning to licensing French companies to produce their products. Both methods have advantages. Americans make a nice penny out of licensing. Official French figures show that last year American firms collected 37 million dollars from the French in royalties on these licenses. The U.S. firms say that France and other countries in which they license local companies to produce American style goods like the idea because licensing encourages the investment of local capital, increases jobs, new worker skills, and sets an example of efficient American production techniques.

One American company trying both licenses and overseas production in its own plants is Kelvinox International, a division of American Motors.

It has a wholly owned plant in England—which sometimes competes with its American based plants in world markets, especially in Africa. And the company has 15 licensees abroad who make its products. The oldest is Kelvinox, Australia, licensed in 1931.

But, today France is its biggest comer in the license field. Kelvinox expects French sales to surpass the Canadian market next year for the first time to become its number one market outside the United States.

The license system works so well for the company that last year the total sales of household refrigerators abroad topped its sales in the United States.

The American firm says its biggest competition now comes from Germany because of labor productivity and aggressive merchandising.

It hopes for an expanding French market are based on growing personal incomes here, rising standards of living, plus these figures:

At present, refrigerator saturation in France is estimated at 17 per cent. Electrified homes in France without refrigerators, the company says, represent a market potential of six to eight million units.

This is how the typical licensee system is set up:

The American firm supplies the licensee with production plans and specifications and with tooling information. It assists in plant layout for maximum efficiency and in the selection and purchase of necessary equipment.

Like most American companies, Kelvinox says it has a system of rigid quality controls policed by frequent inspections. It makes some deviations of the standard product for local market requirements, such as heavy duty tropical mechanism for African, Indian and Singapore markets.

Man cancers can be cured. More than 800,000 Americans have been saved from the disease, according to American Cancer Society statistics.

Atlanta News

By Mrs. Charles W. Mills

The Atlanta PTO met at the school for the final meeting of the school year. President John Williams presided over the business meeting which opened with The Lord's Prayer given in unison. Mrs. Donald Graves gave the secretary's report, followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. Harry Morris.

Report of the calendar committee: the calendars are ready for printing. It was voted on to hold the annual school picnic on the last day of school (following the 8th grade commencement at 11 a. m.) on May 29th.

Election of officers followed the report of the nominating committee, resulting in the new officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. E. Morris; Vice President, Mrs. Tom Farmer; Secretary, Mrs. Robert Conway and Treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Smith Jr.

Program consisted of piano solo, "Tenderly" by Mrs. Harley Evans. An interesting report of Robert Conway, our PTO representative to the Sesquicentennial meeting at Circleville. He also gave an account of the early events and associations of Perry Twp. and especially Atlanta. He is also checking the old cemeteries in our community for the older residents' names and dates.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Donald Graves and her committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Donohoe of Walden, Colorado, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Tolbert and other relatives of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dresbach of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Elwood Ryan of Dayton and Mrs. Mont Drake attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Dresbach of Columbus, at Schoedinger Funeral Home in Columbus on Wednesday afternoon.

Cheryl Martin and Ronnie Justice represented the Atlanta MYF at the District MYF Rally at Lancaster on Sunday afternoon.

The remainder of the year are: Alumni Banquet—May 16, Baccalaureate (church)—May 24, Senior commencement, Chet Long, speaker—May 27, 8th grade commencement and last day of school picnic—May 29. Seniors leave on trip—May 31 and arrive home June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armentrout received word of the death of Mr. Armentrout's aunt, Mrs. Lila Armentrout, of Bellecenter, whose funeral was on Tuesday.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farmer and daughter, Shirley, were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Belknap and Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer.

Mrs. Ed Keaton and Mrs. Erceel Speakman recently attended a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Joe Speakman in Columbus, honoring Mrs. Joe Shy (nee Rosella Maley) of Columbus, a recent bride.

Miss Margaret Oyer of Columbus was a recent weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Oyer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ryan of Dayton were Wednesday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mont Drake.

The 4-H clubs of this community will be in charge of the morning services next Sunday, with Rev. Glenn Robinson assisting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armentrout and daughter Peggy Sue of Clyde spent the weekend with relatives in this community. On Sunday afternoon they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armentrout. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Noel of Lucasville and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly and daughter Cindy and son Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graves and daughters Patti and Nancy and son Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper and sons of Circleville were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Cooper of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ackley of near Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Speakman and children Cheryl, Carla and Connie and Steve of Derby were Saturday afternoon and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keaton and son Danny and Wynonia Bennett. Mr. Speakman is still convalescing from an auto accident, which occurred in October. He is now able to walk, with the support of crutches and braces.

Air Force Tells of Flaw In Big B47s

WASHINGTON (AP)—The B47 jet bomber, the present chief weapon of the Strategic Air Command, has developed structural weaknesses that are giving the Air Force a headache.

This has been disclosed by Air Force officers before the House Appropriations Committee in discussions of the feasibility of continuous airborne alert against possible enemy air attacks. The hearing record was released earlier this week.

Maj. Gen. M. A. Preston, deputy chief of staff for the Air Force, told the committee that structural fatigue has shown up in some parts of the airframe.

Air Force officials likened the situation to that in which a paper clip can be bent repeatedly but finally breaks at the bending point.

Lt. Gen. Francis H. Griswold, vice chief of SAC, said a modification program designed to eliminate the B47 bombers' structural failures has been completed. He called the B47 "a very fine airplane."

He described the information on the structural failures as "old stuff," SAC, he said, announced the start of the modification program last May 2.

Griswold said the B58 bomber will be added to SAC's inventory next fall and will in time replace much of the B47 fleet.

Fund Officials Cautious on Loan Proposal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Administrators of the three retirement funds for state employees have pointed out to Ohio's lawmakers what could be considered weaknesses in a bill to allow the Highway Department to borrow fund money.

The department would use the money for advance purchases of highway right-of-way.

Rep. Edmund G. James (R-No.) heard the three administrators testify Tuesday night before the House Highways Committee, then suggested that the bill may be unconstitutional.

The bill provides that if, after seven years, the department has not used the retirement system money for highway purposes, it must still conclude the purchase of the intended right-of-way, plus pay interest on the loan.

Pointing to the Ohio Constitution's prohibition against using highway funds for anything except highway purposes, James asked:

"If, at the end of seven years, the department goes ahead and buys land it has no intention of using for highway purposes, would not that be unconstitutional?"

The committee adjourned without indicating when it plans to take any action on the bill.

Best Comedians Don't Need Pay Offered, Comic Believes

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Bishop, who will sit in for vacationing Jack Paar next week, said he'd like to get his two brothers on the show. One is a head waiter in Miami Beach and the other "runs a pocketbook factory in California."

A fellow asked if they were unrecognized comic geniuses. "No," replied Bishop. "They're horrible—as comedians. But they could use the 320 bucks you get for appearing on the show."

One yardstick of comedians, he implied, lies in the neighborhood of $320—those who need it and those who don't want it. "I'd like to get Jack Benny and Bob Hope. But neither of them wants $320."

Bishop is a smallish, youngish looking chap with features as immobile as a Grecian mask and an upper lip as stiff as Jack Benny's.

As a matter of fact, Bishop would rather talk about Benny than about himself.

Benny, he says, is a "genuine comic. A genuine comic is a guy who's told by the audience that he's funny. The other kind tells the audience he's funny."

U. S. Civilian Employee Total Shows Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—Civilian employees of the government's executive agencies in March numbered 2,337,495, an increase of 2,286 over February's total, it was reported today.

The February total, which was 2,335,209, was the lowest since the beginning of the current fiscal year in July 1958.

Life of Revenooer Can Be Very Trying

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP)—The life of a revenooer can be a trying thing in the West Virginia hills.

Agent Merlin Mitton was trying to make an arrest for possession of moonshine when he was bitten on the nose and on the back. The nose wound required 17 stitches.

A federal grand jury indicted Harry Johnson of Logan County Tuesday for doing the biting. The formal charge was assaulting a federal officer and hindering him in his duties.

Slayer of Man, 76, Bound to Grand Jury

MILLERSBURG, Ohio (AP)—Charles Stahl, 22, accused of second-degree murder in the slaying of Harvey Harpster, 76, entered a guilty plea upon arraignment today.

Common Pleas Judge W. W. Badger bound him to the grand jury under $5,000 bond.

Stahl was returned here Tuesday night from Florida where he was arrested more than a week ago. Harpster, who lived alone in his cabin at nearby Lakeville, was beaten about the head April 10.

2 Benchwarmers Put Braves Back In First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Braves are back in the National League lead. Who put them there?

Johnny Logan and Wes Covington, the men Manager Fred Haney had announced he was going to bench after the Braves lost two in a row to Cincinnati and fell out of first place.

Shortstop Logan belted his first homer of the year, with a man on, in a three-run second inning against St. Louis Wednesday night. Left fielder Covington blasted his first of the year, also a two-run shot, in the third and the Braves were off to a 9-3 victory.

The win gives Milwaukee a .042 percentage edge over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who slipped to second with a 5-4, ninth-inning defeat at Philadelphia. Cincinnati powered into third, ripping the Chicago Cubs 18-8 as San Francisco skidded to fourth with a 3-2 loss at Pittsburgh.

While Logan (1-for-3) and Covington (2-for-4) fought to hold their starting positions, Hank Aaron continued his hot hitting with a 4-for-5 night, including his fifth homer, and lifted his league-leading average to .526. Billy Bruto also homered for the Braves, who collected 15 hits and made Lew Burdette's fourth straight victory a breeze.

Winless Larry Jackson lost his third for the lastplace Cards.

The Phils caught up with Dodger southpaw Johnny Podres (2-2) with two runs in the ninth. Four singles did it, with pinch hitter Bob Bowman driving in the tying run and pinch hitter Dave Philley delivering the clincher against reliever Art Fowler. Jack Meyer (2-1) won it in relief of Robin Roberts.

The Pirates were blanked on three hits by southpaw Johnny Antonelli (3-1) until they broke loose for a three-run seventh inning capped by Bill Mazeroski's two-out, solo homer. A triple by Bob Clemente, a double by Smoky

Patterson Set For London Bout

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The "real" Floyd Patterson will be on display against British challenger Brian London in their heavyweight title fight Friday night.

That was almost the final word from the champion's camp today as Patterson went through his last light workouts for his fourth title defense.

"This is going to be the Patterson you saw knock out Archie Moore," said trainer Dan Florio. "You're going to see the real Patterson against London."

The 15-rounder is scheduled for 9 p.m. (EST). It will be broadcast and telecast nationally (NBC).

Bryan Soups Up Racer for '500'

CHICAGO (AP)—Jimmy Bryan, winner of the 1958 Memorial Day 500-mile race, and his revitalized racer may be the combination to beat in this year's version of the motor classic.

"You going to win again this year?" he was asked.

"If the car is capable of it, we'll do it," said Bryan.

The 32-year-old Phoenix, Ariz., driver won last year in the Belond Special. He'll drive the same racer next May 30. But it has some new features designed to boost its speed and reduce time spent in the pits.

Burgess and Dick Stuart's single tied it. Ron Kline won his first. What is it about the Chicago White Sox that peps up the New York Yankees?

The Yankees had their first run of the season with the White Sox Wednesday. They went into Comiskey Park below .500 after losing four in a row. Bob Turley, the Yanks' right-handed ace, had lost two straight. And the club hadn't been able to score twice in any of its last 51 innings.

So the Yankees rapped three home runs, scored twice in the first inning and beat the White Sox 5-2. Turley evened his record at 2-2, although giving up nine hits.

That hoisted the Yankees to fifth with a .500 record and helped to hand the Cleveland Indians, whose game with Boston was rained out, a 1½-game lead. The Baltimore Orioles remained tied with Chicago for second despite a 7-1 loss at Detroit in a game held to five innings by rain. Kansas City defeated Washington 7-6.

Mickey Mantle, Hank Bauer and Bill Skowron homered for the Yankees, who had eight hits. Mantle's came with a man on in the first off loser Ray Moore (0-2).

Only Nellie Fox, who was 4-for-5, gave Turley any real trouble.

Action Slated Today for CHS

The baseball and track squads of Circleville High School are slated for action today, weather permitting.

Coach Dick Fisher's baseballers are set to entertain Hilliards at Ted Lewis Park in a Central District Class AA Tournament test, providing the diamond is in playing condition following last night's rain.

Coach John Current's cinder squad is scheduled for a trip to Greenfield. A meet slated Tuesday at Lancaster was not held.

Regular scheduled play calls for the baseball nine to travel to Wilmington tomorrow.

South Teams Roll in 11

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only the Toronto Maple Leafs' 6-3 victory over the Havana Sugar Kings prevented a southern sweep in the northern opening of the International League Wednesday.

The league-leading Miami Marlins breezed to an 11-2 victory over the Montreal Royals, the Richmond Vees whipped Buffalo 9-4 and Columbus gained a 3-2, 11-inning victory over Richmond.

Archie Wilson's pinch-hit triple in the sixth inning drove in two runs to boost the Leafs to their victory before 14,268 opening day fans in Toronto. Borrego Alvarez' three-run homer in the fourth put the Sugar Kings in front briefly. Dave Pope, who had three hits, hit his second homer of the season in the second inning for Toronto.

Add Machines Needed for Redleg Tally

CINCINNATI (AP) — Don't be surprised if the vendors at the Cincinnati Reds' Crosley Field add a phrase to that old cry "you can't tell a player without a scorecard. They'll probably add something like this:

"And you can't keep a score without an adding machine."

That's the way it seems to be working out with the hit-happy Reds. They reached a season high Wednesday night as they crushed the Chicago Cubs 18-8.

That followed on the heels of an 11-0 victory over Milwaukee Sunday and in their last nine games the slugging Cincinnatians have scored 81 runs—an average of nine a game. But they've won only five of those contests.

All of which probably makes manager May Smith's greying and thinning hair get greyer and thinner.

If he just had the pitching to go with that kind of hitting his lads might be able to run away from the rest of the National League.

Wednesday night, however, his starter, Brooks Lawrence, couldn't go all the way even after he had been staked to a 10-0 lead in the first two innings. He had to be relieved in the seventh when the Cubs cut the Cincinnati margin to four runs at 12-8.

The Redlegs came up with three doubles and home runs by Roy McMillan, Gus Bell and Frank Robinson among their 18 hits.

They were helped along, too, by 11 walks, four Cub errors and two wild pitches.

Frank Thomas was the only Redleg starter who didn't get at least one hit but he drove in two tallies on sacrifice flies. Vada Pinson was on base six straight times on four walks and two hits.

The two teams play the second game of their series tonight with Bob Purkey scheduled to pitch against Chicago's Bob Anderson.

Four Local Residents To See Fight

Four local residents will be on hand at the World's Heavyweight Championship bout Friday night in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Burkhardt, Knollwood Village, Donald E. Meyers, 107 Collins Court, and William D. Rackett, Route 3, plan to attend the fight between champ Floyd Patterson and challenger, Brian London.

This group also has another interest in the fight. A salesman for Lincoln Molded Plastics, with which the local residents are associated, has an interest in a fighter who will appear on the fight card with The Patterson-London bout.

The fighter, Tex Watkins, will face Kirt Vance, a London sparring partner. It is a middleweight match. Watkins sports a 6-1-1 professional record and was the Far East Air Force middleweight champ for 1956 and 57.

Wildlife Chieftains' Chores Varied, Very Complicated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The average Ohio hunter's attitude toward pheasants and rabbits could be summed up as:

"Hunt 'em, shoot 'em, clean 'em, cook 'em, eat 'em."

But the outlook of the Ohio Wildlife Division is not so uncomplicated.

The division is now engaged in such intricate endeavors as weighing the lenses of rabbit eyes, running questionnaire results through punch machines, mechanical sorters and electronic calculators, and answering such questions as:

"Do I have to have a license to keep a praying mantis?"

The department is looking the cottontail in the eye to determine its age—just as you'd look a horse in the mouth for the same purpose. Based on the fact the lens in an animal's eye grows throughout its life, the game management experts expect to figure, through the weight of the lens, the rabbit's age to the nearest month.

Bill Edwards, who heads the farm game research setup, said the data could reveal when rabbit production reaches its peak, reproductive success, mortality and other life history necessary in game management.

The electric computer activity will sort out various items touched upon in questionnaires sent to 7,000 hunters selected at random. Such things as when, where and how often they hunted, plus the number of pheasant, rabbits and Hungarian partridge harvested, will be tabulated.

The division hopes, through comparison of the 7,000 answers to the total number of licenses issued, to reveal where the hunting pressures and successes are greatest. Such answers would be used in setting hunting seasons and harvest regulations.

"You can't keep wild animals in captivity without a license from the Ohio Division of Wildlife," said Chief Hayden Olds today.

Permits are free, but must be renewed each March 1. Olds said the division is flooded with questions on keeping wild animals brought home by children or pet cats and dogs.

To the "praying mantis" question, Olds informed the nature lover the mantis is an insect and that there is now law governing it being kept in captivity.

Beavers which flood farmlands with their dams are being trapped in northeastern Ohio and transplanted to the southern sector, John Oney, wildlife supervisor in the northeastern area, said 53 were trapped last year in Ashtabula, Mahoning, Columbiana and Stark counties, along with 16 this year, and sent on to the southern jaunt.

About 250 snowshoe rabbits will be stocked along the Grand River in Ashtabula County this year to re-establish a species which disappeared from Ohio about 1900. They are being caught by trappers in Ontario, Canada, where the population cycle is at its peak, and transferred to Ohio in continuance of a program started in 1953.

There's more to this business of competition parachuting than just jumping out of an airplane and pulling the string.

First there's the matter of accuracy. Here, the object is to guide the chute so that the landing is made as close as possible to a predetermined target spot.

Then there's maneuvers. These are made from so-called free falls. The jumper leaves the plane at heights ranging from 3,500 to 8,500 feet altitude, and the parachute is not opened until reaching 2,000 feet. That time in between is the free fall.

In competition, the jumpers — during this free fall period — are required to execute certain maneuvers. These include 360 degree turns, spins and rolls. Points are scored both from the ground judges and an official who sometimes follows the contestant from the plane.

ORDINANCE NO. 20-59
AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS BY THE CITY OF CINCINNATI, OHIO, IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS HERETOFORE LEVIED TO PAY THE PROPERTY OWNERS' PORTION OF THE COST OF CONSTRUCTING A SEWAGE PUMPING STATION, SEWERS, REQUISITE HOUSE SERVICE CONNECTIONS AND NECESSARY APPURTENANCES IN CINCINNATI SEWER DISTRICT NO. 1.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, has heretofore in Resolution No. 4248, passed June 16, 1957, declared the necessity of constructing the improvements hereinafter described in and for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1; and

WHEREAS, notes were issued in anticipation of the bonds herein authorized, were thereafter renewed and will mature on June 3, 1960; and

WHEREAS, the Auditor, as fiscal officer of this City, has heretofore certified the estimated life of the improvements and the maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CINCINNATI, Ohio, three-fourths of the members elected thereto concurring:

Section 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to issue bonds of the City of Cincinnati, in the principal sum of $127,000 in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1 described in Resolution No. 4248 heretofore recited for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1.

Section 2. Said bonds shall be issued in the principal amount of $127,000 for the purpose aforesaid. The said bonds shall be dated June 1, 1959, shall be issued in the denomination of $1,000 each, shall be numbered 1 to 127, both inclusive, and shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum (4 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of June and the first day of December of each year, beginning December 1, 1959, until the principal sum is paid, as evidenced by the coupons attached thereto, provided, however, that if the bonds are sold bearing a different rate of interest than herein specified, such bonds shall bear the rate of interest as may be provided in the resolution of Council approving the award thereof. Such bonds shall mature in their consecutive serial order, as follows:

$13,006 December 1, 1960 to 1962, inclusive, and $14,000 December 1, 1963 to 1969, inclusive.

which maturities are hereby determined to be in substantially equal annual installments. In the event of receipt hereafter of cash payments of the assessments anticipated, then the amount and denominations of this issue and the maturities thereof shall be reduced and adjusted accordingly.

Section 3. Said bonds shall be executed by the Mayor and the Auditor and shall bear the corporate seal of said City. Interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Auditor printed or lithographed thereon. They shall be designated "Sewer District Improvement Bonds", and shall be payable in American money of the United States of America at the office of the legal depository of the City, presently The Third National Bank of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Section 4. For the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds promptly when and as the same falls due, and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge said serial bonds at maturity, there shall be levied and levied on the taxable property in the City of Cincinnati, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run, in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the interest upon said bonds and when the same fall due, and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said serial bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and principal fund tax required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution of Ohio. Provided, however, that in each year the assessments anticipated by said bonds are available for the payment of such bonds and are appropriated for such purpose, the amount of such tax shall be reduced by the amount of the assessment so appropriated.

Section 5. Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the last day of May and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes are levied and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and after the year 1959 and other items and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levy heretofore required to be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which, together with the interest collected on the same shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of principal and interest on said bonds when and as the same fall due.

Section 6. That all installments of said assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest as the same shall become due and for no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 7. Said bonds shall be first offered at par and at accrued interest to the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and if said officer refuses to take any of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds other than premium paid and accrued and capitalized interest shall be used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose. The premium, accrued and capitalized interest received from such sale shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, in the manner provided by law.

Section 8. The Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to certify a copy of this ordinance to the Auditor of Pickaway County, Ohio, according to law.

Section 9. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety of this City, and for the further reason that the notes of this City issued for this improvement are about to mature and must be retired with the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein in order to protect the credit of this City; WHEREFORE, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor.

5,000th Phone Installed Here By General

A milestone in General Telephone's growth in Cincinnati was celebrated recently when its five thousandth telephone was installed.

The installation was in the home of William "Bud" R. Pike, Route 3, a new resident of Cincinnati, and employee in the film department of the E. I. duPont de Nemours and Company.

Pike was transferred recently from the DuPont Fibers Plant in Winston, North Carolina, to the local Cincinnati plant. While in Winston he was a member of Production Supervision and at Cincinnati he is employed as a Production Shift Supervisor.

Pike and his wife, Susan, have three children, Philip, 6; Cynthia, 3; and Linda, 2. They have been active members of the Episcopal Church at Kinsion.

PIKE HAS participated in the Boy Scout program as an adult leader, and Mrs. Pike is interested in fine arts paintings. She and her husband both enjoy gardening as one of their leisure time activities.

Pike was recently transferred to the Cincinnati plant due to the increasing demand for "mylar", DuPont's trademark for polyester film, since the start of its commercial production.

This expanding has necessitated the addition of new facilities which in turn have resulted in increasing the number of operating and supervising positions in DuPont's Cincinnati Plant.

Harold Miller, 1046 Lynwood Ave., District Commercial Manager for General Telephone Company, said that the installation of the five thousandth telephone reflects the industrial expansion and population growth of Cincinnati.

During the past two years more than a million dollars was invested by General Telephone Company of Ohio in an expansion and improvement program to establish complete new dial telephone service in Cincinnati.

The program was engineered and executed not only to improve service but to accommodate the future needs and growth of the community.

THIS PROGRAM started in 1957 when the former telephone building was doubled in size to accommodate additional facilities required for the expanded operation.

"The construction of additional cable and open wire facilities in the exchange area has doubled the efficiency of long distance handling for General Telephone users in Cincinnati," Miller stated. He added that telephone service in the exchange area had virtually doubled in the past 10 years.

Miller further pointed out that the Cincinnati conversion to dial service was one of the major steps in the continuing of the multi-million dollar expansion program by General Telephone Company of Ohio to expand and improve service to all its customers in Ohio.

John Davis Nominated for NCTE Award
John Tootle Davis, a junior in Circleville High School, has been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards Program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), it was stated today by George Hartman, city schools superintendent.

In its second year, the Awards program is being conducted throughout the nation to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English. The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local state committees.

The winners will be announced in January, 1960, by the NCTE, and the names of the Awards winners will be sent to every U. S. college and university with the recommendation that these students be considered for scholarship assistance.

According to J. N. Hook, NCTE Executive Secretary, the Awards program was initiated last year in response to President Eisenhower's statement that America needs its Emersons as well as its Einsteins.

"THERE WERE MORE than 2,000 nominees for the first Awards," said Hook, "and we expect about 5,000 for this second round."

"The quality of the writing submitted by last year's winners and runners-up was very high," Hook asserted. "It constitutes a positive answer to statements that American youth cannot write effectively. These students, and thousands more, are learning to use the language with precision and vividness."

Founded in 1911, the NCTE is a professional, not-for-profit organization of teachers of English at all levels. Currently the circulation of the Council's five professional publications is over 51,000.

Residents Donates 94 Pints To Red Cross Bloodmobile

A total of 94 pints of blood were collected Tuesday during the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile held in the basement of the Methodist Church. Eight persons offered blood but were unable due to health reasons.

At least 15 people with known O-negative blood responded to the plea for donors for open heart surgery for a 3-year-old girl. The Pickaway County Chapter expressed its appreciation to these people and all the others whose assistance made this contribution possible.

The Bloodmobile canteen was operated by the following members of Washington Grange: Mrs. J. Boyd Stout, Mrs. Forest Valentine, Miss Bertha Valentine, Mrs. Andrew Thomas, Mrs. Floy Brobst and Miss Nellie Bolender.

Members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority assumed the responsibility of the registration desk. Those who helped were Jeri Robbins, Veronica Russell, Eleanor Wilkinson, Phyllis Maxey, Vada Reeder, Audrey Bell and Mary Black.

OTHERS WHO assisted with clerical work were Mrs. Leo Hughes, Mrs. T. D. Stouffer, Mrs. Waldo Murrette, Mrs. Howard Huston and Mrs. Montford Kirkwood Jr. Mrs. Emory Ridlon was in charge of the temperature table.

Members of the Pickaway County Nurses Assn. and the Medical Society gave volunteer time to staff the operation each time the Bloodmobile Unit visits Pickaway County.

Mrs. Charles Eitel and Robert Cromley each received a two gallon donor pin and James Moody received a one gallon pin during Tuesday's visit.

Bible College Schedules Play

Students of Circleville Bible College will present a play entitled "A Good Steward" at 7:45 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel in the administration building.

Ambulance Makes Run
Joe Hickey, Dearborn Ave., was rushed to Berger Hospital at 12:35 p. m. yesterday after suffering a fall in a local cafe.

Hickey was taken to the hospital by the Circleville Fire Department emergency ambulance. Firemen said he suffered a broken ankle.

The play tells the story of a successful New York business man who is recuperating from a motor accident in the home of a woman and her brother in a small town. How their sincere religious lives affect his thinking and living is learned as the play unfolds.

Special music will be offered by the Girls' Trio and Karen Ayers at the organ.

Miss Evelyn Mathers is director and Miss Mary Lou Myers is student director.

A free will offering will be taken. The public is invited to attend.

ORDINANCE NO. 20-59
AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS BY THE CITY OF CINCINNATI, OHIO, IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS HEREFOR TO BE USED TO PAY THE PROPERTY OWNERS' PORTION OF THE COST OF CONSTRUCTION OF A SEWAGE PUMPING STATION, SEWERS, REQUISITE HOUSE SERVICE CONNECTIONS AND NECESSARY APPURTENANCES IN CINCINNATI SEWER DISTRICT NO. 1.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, has heretofore by Resolution No. 4248, passed June 16, 1959, declared the necessity of constructing the improvements hereinafter described in and for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1 in said City; and

WHEREAS, notes were issued in anticipation of the bonds herein authorized, were thereafter renewed and will mature on June 5, 1959; and

WHEREAS, the Auditor, as fiscal officer of this City, has heretofore certified the estimated life of the improvement and the maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE Council of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, that the bonds of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, in the principal sum of $137,000 in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1 described in Resolution No. 4248 heretofore recited for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1.

Section 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to issue bonds of the City of Cincinnati, in the principal sum of $137,000 in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1 described in Resolution No. 4248 heretofore recited for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1.

Section 2. Said bonds shall be issued in the principal amount of $137,000 for the purpose aforesaid. The said bonds shall be dated June 1, 1959, shall be issued in the denomination of $1,000 each, shall be numbered 1 to 137, both inclusive, and shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum (4 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of June and the first day of December of each year, beginning December 1, 1960, until the principal sum is paid, as evidenced by the coupons attached thereto; provided, however, that if the bonds are sold bearing a different rate of interest than herein specified, such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided in the resolution of the Council approving the award thereof. Such bonds shall mature in their consecutive serial order, as follows:

$13,000 December 1, 1960 to 1962, inclusive, and $14,000 December 1, 1963 to 1969, inclusive, which maturities are hereby determined to be substantially equal to the maturities of the bonds of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, in the principal sum of $137,000, in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1 described in Resolution No. 4248 heretofore recited for Cincinnati Sewer District No. 1.

Section 3. Said bonds shall be executed by the Mayor and the Auditor and shall bear the corporate seal of said City. Interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Auditor printed or lithographed thereon. The said bonds shall be deposited with the Cincinnati Trust Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, as depository.

Section 4. For the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds, the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, shall, when and as the same fall due, also provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said serial bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied a tax on the taxable property in the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the interest upon said bonds as and when the same fall due, and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said serial bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution of Ohio. Provided, however, that in each year that the assessments anticipated by said bonds are available for the payment of such bonds and are appropriated for such purpose, the amount of such tax shall be reduced by the amount of the assessment so appropriated.

Section 5. Said tax shall be and is hereby levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes, of each said year are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other taxes for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from the tax hereby levied shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which, together with the interest pledged for the payment of principal and interest on said bonds when and as the same fall due.

Section 6. That all installments of said assessments and all payments hereon, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest on the same shall become due and for no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 7. Said bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and if said officer refuses to take any or all of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds and the capitalized interest, shall be used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose. The proceeds accrued and capitalized interest received from said sale shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, in the manner provided by law.

Section 8. The Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to certify a copy of this ordinance to the Auditor of Pickaway County, Ohio, according to law.

Section 9. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety of this City, and for the further reason that the notes of this City issued for this improvement are about to mature and must be retired with the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein in order to protect the credit of this City. WHEREFORE, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Passed: April 28, 1959
D. J. CARPENTER
President of Council
Attest: ROBERT J. SHADLEY
Clerk of Council

Approved: April 28, 1959

5,000th Phone Installed Here By General

A milestone in General Telephone's growth in Circleville was celebrated recently when its five thousandth telephone was installed.

The installation was in the home of William "Bud" R. Pike, Route 3, a new resident of Circleville and employee in the film department of the E. I. DuPont de Nemours and Company.

Pike was transferred recently from the DuPont Fibers Plant in Kingston, North Carolina, to the local Circleville Plant. While in Kingston he was a member of Production Supervision and at Circleville he is employed as a Production Shift Supervisor.

Pike and his wife, Susan, have three children, Philip, 6; Cynthia, 3; and Linda, 2. They have been active members of the Episcopal Church at Kingston.

PIKE HAS participated in the Boy Scout program as an adult leader, and Mrs. Pike is interested in fine arts paintings. She and her husband both enjoy gardening as one of their leisure time activities.

Pike was recently transferred to the Circleville plant due to the increasing demand for "mylar", DuPont's trademark for polyester film, since the start of its commercial production.

This expanding has necessitated the addition of new facilities which in turn have resulted in increasing the number of operating and supervising positions in DuPont's Circleville Plant.

Harold Miller, 1946 Lynwood Ave., District Commercial Manager for General Telephone Company, said that the installation of the five thousandth telephone reflects the industrial expansion and population growth of Circleville.

During the past two years more than a million dollars was invested by General Telephone Company of Ohio in an expansion and improvement program to establish complete new dial telephone service in Circleville.

The program was engineered and executed not only to improve service but to accommodate the future needs and growth of the community.

THIS PROGRAM started in 1957 when the former telephone building was doubled in size to accommodate additional facilities required for the expanded operation.

"The construction of additional cable and open wire facilities in the exchange area has doubled the efficiency of long distance handling for General Telephone users in Circleville," Miller stated. He added that telephone service in the exchange area had virtually doubled in the past 10 years.

Miller further pointed out that the Circleville conversion to dial service was one of the major steps in the continuing of the multi-million dollar expansion program by General Telephone Company of Ohio to expand and improve service to all its customers in Ohio.

John Davis

Nominated for NCTE Award

John Tootle Davis, a junior in Circleville High School, has been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), it was stated today by George Hartman, city schools superintendent.

In its second year, the Awards program is being conducted throughout the nation to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English. The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local state committees.

The winners will be announced in January, 1960, by the NCTE, and the names of the Awards winners will be sent to every U. S. college and university with the recommendation that these students be considered for scholarship assistance.

According to J. N. Hook, NCTE Executive Secretary, the Awards program was initiated last year in response to President Eisenhower's statement that America needs its Emersons as well as its Einsteins.

"THERE WERE MORE than 2,000 nominees for the first Awards," said Hook, "and we expect about 5,000 for this second round."

"The quality of the writing submitted by last year's winners and runners-up was very high," Hook asserted. "It constitutes a positive answer to statements that American youth cannot write effectively. These students, and thousands more, are learning to use the language with precision and vividness."

Founded in 1911, the NCTE is a professional, not-for-profit organization of teachers of English at all levels. Currently the circulation of the Council's five professional publications is over 51,000.

Residents Donates 94 Pints To Red Cross Bloodmobile

A total of 94 pints of blood were collected Tuesday during the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile held in the basement of the Methodist Church. Eight persons offered blood but were unable due to health reasons.

At least 15 people with known O-negative blood responded to the plea for donors for open heart surgery for a 3-year-old girl. The Pickaway County Chapter expressed its appreciation to these people and all the others whose assistance made this contribution possible.

The Bloodmobile canteen was operated by the following members of Washington Grange: Mrs. J. Boyd Stout, Mrs. Forest Valentine, Miss Bertha Valentine, Mrs. Andrew Thomas, Mrs. Floy Brobst and Miss Nellie Bolender.

Members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority assumed the responsibility of the registration desk. Those who helped were Jeri Robbins, Veronica Russell, Eleanor Wilkinson, Phyllis Maxey, Vada Reefer, Audrey Bell and Mary Black.

OTHERS WHO assisted with clerical work were Mrs. Leo Hughes, Mrs. T. D. Stouffer, Mrs. Waldo Murrette, Mrs. Howard Huston and Mrs. Montford Kirkwood Jr. Mrs. Emory Ridlon was in charge of the temperature table.

Members of the Pickaway County Nurses Assn. and the Medical Society gave volunteer time to staff the operation each time the Bloodmobile Unit visits Pickaway County.

Mrs. Charles Eitel and Robert Cromley each received a two gallon donor pin and James Moody received a one gallon pin during Tuesday's visit.

Those donating and their respective organizations were:

Bible College Schedules Play

Students of Circleville Bible College will present a play entitled "A Good Steward" at 7:45 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel in the administration building.

The play tells the story of a successful New York business man who is recuperating from a motor accident in the home of a woman and her brother in a small town.

How their sincere religious lives affect his thinking and living is learned as the play unfolds.

Special music will be offered by the Girls' Trio and Karen Ayers at the organ.

Miss Evelyn Mathers is director and Miss Mary Lou Myers is student director.

A free will offering will be taken. The public is invited to attend.
